- I'm so proud of everyone's flexibility, cooperation, and hard work yesterday. New things are hard but we ROCKED it.
- The state mandated risk management training is September 16th at 5pm and your chapter presidents should receive more information about that soon

- 102 days until finals ladies ;)

VP of Membership Development [alw149]:

- Recruitment counselor work week went so well! Thank y'all for all sending AMAZING RCs!!
- We need to talk about Bid Day… Instead of RCs revealing to their chapter group by group like in the past, we will be making the focus more on PNMs and make the reveal quicker. Therefore, RCs will stand in a line in front of the chapters side by side facing the PNMs BEFORE bids are open. We are doing this formation because we want the PNMs to be able to see where their RCs are going. Once lined up RCs, In alphabetical order, will start singing their chosen song/chant 2 times. On the first round every RC will sing/chant and then on the second time around the RC's who are NOT a part of that chapter will kneel down and only the girls in that chapter will sing the song the second time and unzip their jackets to reveal their bid day shirts! They will stay in their spot in line until after the PNMs run home and then RCs will then run to their homes! Panhellenic will then reveal after that.
- Disaffiliation- RCs can give a casual hello to ANY chapter women and show PPC on campus! However, at embassy there can be NO contact.
- Roundtables are happening!! September 6th we will be talking about new member education!
- New Member plans are due ON BID DAY! Remind your New Member Ed execs!
- Turn plans into FSL office 4-14.1 to Zach Webb-They can NOT be emailed! If you have emailed please bring it by the FSL office!

VP of Finance [aao35]:

- My first Finance round table will be Wednesday September 19th at 7pm (get hyped to talk about money) it will be on LBJ 3-4.1
- Still constantly updating budget and recruitment budget

VP of Public Relations:

VP of Women's Empowerment [a_m982]:

- The first Philanthropy Roundtable is September 19th at 6! Location is TBD
- We have some super amazing events coming up this semester
    - Dollars, Donuts, and Documentaries September 26th at 6pm. Location TBD.
    - Body Positivity Week October 15-19th. We are having insta challenges and free workout classes donated by HEAT Bootcamp. And we are also bringing in Stacy Nadeau, who was one of the original Dove Real Women and it's going to be amazing and life changing. #love yo self
    - Trivia night benefiting Circle of Sisterhood November 7th! It will be at George's and is going to be absolutely amazing! I am working on getting some yummy snacks and some super awesome prizes!
- Blanco Elementary has a volunteer opportunity for mentorships and they want Greek women! I can forward y'all that information if you need it for your sisters.
- Let's remember to keep everything with recruitment positive and happy and to keep uplifting your Panhellenic sisters!

VP of Recruitment Elect:

Advisor [glv18]:

- "If you want to see things happen at a global level, start at the village level. Give women
- the tools and education and they will drive the change." – Melinda Gates
- The change we create here will trickle up to a national level!
- Excited to be here and looking forward to working with all of you!
- Roundtables – each council VP will be hosting Roundtables this semester. It is very important that your women are there! These are the help our leader's development both professionally and personally. They will be evaluated and updated every semester, so we are sure we are serving our students. If you know any members having issues with them please let's talk about it!
- Recruitment: PNMs loved seeing all the chapters together and as a community yesterday. Keep that in mind throughout recruitment next weekend! Please let your chapters know that PNMs took a lot away from yesterday and felt the love of the Panhellenic community and please continue this throughout the weekend!
