The faculty and students working with The Clinic for Autism Research, Evaluation and support (CARES) are actively involved in research and collaborate with researchers from around the world. The research conducted by CARES’ faculty is designed to improve the quality of life and educational outcomes of people with autism spectrum disorders and other intellectual and physical disabilities. Below is a list of selected publications.

2011 Peer Reviewed Research Publication

2010 Peer Reviewed Research Publication

