Talented Web Developer Intern with a VENGEANCE!

We are seeking an intern to work with our team to create a series of web sites and marketing material. We plan on giving you LOTS of free reign to make plans, make mistakes and come up with GREAT ideas. We want this internship to be a fun experience but it will be real work and real problem solving. We have high expectations and you will be challenged. You will have the opportunity to collaborate with some of the top Marketing, PR, and Communication experts in Los Angeles, CA.

Our focus is to hire someone with a creative and imaginative flair. We would like to work with an independent, driven individual who can work without explicit instructions and hand holding. You will be working as part of a highly collaborative team.
