Texas State University – HBSA Chapter named CHAPTER OF THE YEAR!

* Texas State HBSA students competed in the 17th annual 2006 NHBA Leadership Conference, which was held in Los Angeles, California. There were over 600 students attending from 47 different universities, with 32 chapters competing for this award. Among the universities competing were the top schools in the U.S.

* The students are judged on several aspects. A full report is prepared indicating their leadership activities in service (community and university) and academics (assistant members in staying focused to graduate). Our HBSA students have demonstrated tremendous creativity and commitment, and we are very proud of them!

* An active chapter representative to NHBA is required to attend the summer workshop and two more meetings during the year. Our Texas State University HBSA representative to NHBA - Abel Orta, accounting major – received the Representative of the Year Award.

Congratulations HBSA, Abel, and Dr. Cecilia Temponi, HBSA Faculty Advisor!
