Texas State Theatre 2010 Summer Camp Checklist

Before the start of the workshop, there are some tasks that need to be done prior to onsite registration in order to facilitate the registration process. You will need to print the Student Parent Handbook and all Mandatory Forms.

Some forms/information need to be completed and sent to Texas State University by the May 16, 2010 deadline. Some forms/information need to be completed and brought to the workshop on the first day of camp, July 18, 2010.

Mailed in to Texas State University by May 16, 2010:

- Student Application/Registration Form and Deposit
  * filled out completely and clearly
  * $300 deposit included
  * t-shirt size, make-up choice indicated

- Medical Emergency Information/Consent to Treatment Form
  * filled out completely and clearly
  * signed and dated
  * copies of insurance card attached

- Waiver of Liability, Consent to Treatment and Picture Release Form
  * filled out completely
  * signed and dated

- Student and Parent Handbook
  * read through rules and regulations
  * signed and dated form of compliance (last page of handbook)

Completed and brought to first day of workshop July 18, 2010:

- Parental Authorization and Request of Departure Form (if applicable)
  * filled out completely
  * signed and dated

- Final payment amount

Note: cell phones MUST be turned off during auditions, classes, and rehearsals!

What to bring to camp

The items you’ll need for residence on campus include, but are not limited to:

- _____ linens (single beds) and towels
- _____ blanket and/or fan for comfort level
- _____ alarm clock (tardiness is not acceptable)
- _____ personal toiletries (soap, shampoo, hygiene items)
- _____ pencils and highlighters
- _____ comfortable appropriate clothing for rehearsals
- _____ comfortable shoes (including tennis shoes)

No flip-flops allowed during theatre auditions, classes or rehearsals!

- _____ cash for snacks, etc.
- _____ detergent, quarters for coin-operated laundry, if desired