Athletic Trainer

Job Code 00001443

General Description
Responsible for providing athletic training services to intercollegiate athletes and classroom instruction to athletic training students.

Examples of Duties
Prevent athletic injuries with protective devices, pre-participation screening, conditioning programs and environmental monitoring.
Evaluate athletic injuries including history, observation, palpation, stress and neurological assessment of motor and sensory function.
Treat and dispose of athletic injuries using protective devices, first aid, therapeutic modalities and referral to appropriate medical personnel.
Rehabilitate athletic injuries in order to restore function to disabled body part.
Maintain general condition during disability and establish criteria for return to activity.
Organize and administer the athletic training program including medical records, purchasing supplies, maintaining equipment, and establishing health care system, especially emergency support services.
Educate and counsel regarding the prevention and care of athletic injuries.
Perform other duties as assigned.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities
Skill in: effectively directing the work of others; establishing rapport with a variety of constituents and mediating disputes.
Ability to: use measuring devices; review simple logs; read technical manuals and understand policy and procedure manuals; complete forms, prepare reports, take telephone messages and complete purchase requisitions; perform basic and intermediate math.

Experience and Education
To qualify for this classification, an individual must possess any combination of experience and education that would likely produce the required knowledge, skills, and abilities.

Other Requirements
Bachelor’s Degree