Are you registered for Spring 2015 classes yet?

Registration is open until December 19th, but classes are filling up fast!

Call or come by to schedule an advising appointment to discuss your Spring 2015 class schedule.

Questions about withdrawing? Contact UCAC beforehand.

WITHDRAWING or dropping to zero hours
Last day to withdraw is November 20 at 5 p.m. Must submit Withdrawal Form to the Office of the University Registrar – see website for more details:
http://www.registrar.txstate.edu/registration/withdraw-from-classes.html
This degree program teaches students the tools necessary to gain employment in related criminal justice fields such as probation, parole, policing, asset protection and other non-practitioner roles such as research and rehabilitation counseling. The three degree path options under this degree are Criminal Justice (General), Law Enforcement, and Corrections. There is also an optional internship with this program.

The Allies team also hosts numerous events such as “Welcome to the Family,” “Lavender Graduate,” and “Allies Biannual meetings” to encourage continued education on LGBTQIA topics at Texas State.

For this and more information on Texas State Allies and/or to sign up for an Allies training, please visit this website:

Class Examples:
- Police Systems & Practices
- Court & Criminal Procedures
- Correctional Systems & Practices
- Juvenile Justice
- Forensic Evidence
- Terrorism in the U.S.
- Cybercrime
- Serial Murder

Possible Job Titles:
- Corrections Counselor
- Parole/Probation Officer
- Substance Abuse Counselor
- Juvenile Detention Specialist
- Criminal Investigator
- Forensic Specialist
- Police Officer

Degree: Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice
This degree program teaches students the tools necessary to gain employment in related criminal justice fields such as probation, parole, policing, asset protection and other non-practitioner roles such as research and rehabilitation counseling. The three degree path options under this degree are Criminal Justice (General), Law Enforcement, and Corrections. There is also an optional internship with this program. [See this and more in the Undergraduate Catalog: http://www.txstate.edu/curriculumservices/catalogs/undergraduate/catalogs.html]

School of Criminal Justice Website:
http://www.cj.txstate.edu/degrees-programs/undergraduate.html