Did you know ... the Educator Preparation Program (EPP) here at Texas State is made up of faculty, staff, and students from nearly every college in the university? All university employees who recruit, advise, teach, or simply visit with students aspiring to be preK-12 educators play a vital role in the EPP, and this workshop is for you!

We will ...

Check out the State Board of Educator Certification rules;

Explore the entire Certification process from admission to Certification;

Work through a few sample scenarios, particularly for transfer, international, and non-College of Education students; and

Give you tons of resources to talk to prospective and current students about one of the largest--and possibly the best!--Educator Preparation Programs in the nation.
