

Texas State University Bilingual School Psychology Certificate

Project SUPERB students will develop a core set of competencies in school psychology with an additional emphasis in bilingual school psychology that includes:

Multicultural issues in School Psychology

Assessment of Culturally and Linguistically Diverse

Psycholinguistics

Clinic practicum with bilingual clients

Two school-based practicum placements with bilingual supervision

A 1200-hour minimum school-based internship with bilingual supervision

Exit language proficiency evaluation