Executive Summary

The Rural Talent Search grade level progression and college enrollment assessment was administered during September of 2010. All 607 of the Rural Talent Search Program records were reviewed to confirm grade level advancement and college enrollment rates. The demographics of the participant records include 7th through 12th grade RTS program participants; approximately 69% of the participant records were low-income, first generation students.

The assessment demonstrates the Rural Talent Search program yielded a 97.89% grade level advancement rate of pre-college Trio participants and an 81.82% post-secondary enrollment rate of all senior-level Trio participants. Grade level advancement rates of pre-college Trio participants and secondary enrollment rates of all senior-level Trio participants will be reevaluated annually.
