ENG 1320
Noll

Paper 2

Develop a theory for why more Americans, as a whole, are more obese than ever. What should be done about it? Who is responsible? To what extent is fast food to blame?

Keep in mind:

- Consider information that complicates your argument. You must introduce at least one opposing argument.
- Use quotations from at least three different essays. The quotations should both support and complicate your argument. You will be graded on how you incorporate the arguments of others into your essay.
  o To incorporate others' arguments, use templates from the book.
- Your paper should be interesting. Do not be boring.
- Complete a works cited page
- You may use information that is not in the essays in the book, but it must be a specific kind:
  o You could go to the grocery store to find out prices of various types of food.
  o You could survey the number/kind of restaurants in San Marcos/Austin o You could survey the grocery stores available and their location
  o You could survey the quality of food available at Texas State.
  o DO NOT seek out essays other than those included in the book.

Requirements:

This essay should
- Be a minimum of 750 words
- Be double-spaced (with no extra spaces between paragraphs)
- Contain quotations that are correctly formatted and cited using MLA style
- Contain a specific argument and examples to back it up
- Have a title.
