VI. AGENDA ITEMS, CONTINUED

2014-75  LSC-PA; Actions Regarding Lamar State College President, Dr. Sam Monroe

Upon motion of Regent Salazar, seconded by Regent Scott, with all Regents voting aye, it was ordered that:

1. The title, "President Emeritus," together with all privileges and perquisites stated in the Rules and Regulations for professors emeriti, be hereby conferred and forever inure to Lamar State College-Port Arthur president, Dr. Sam Monroe;

2. The attached resolution, recognizing President Monroe’s academic, professional, and civic achievements and contributions, be hereby adopted and forever memorialized in the proceedings of this Board of Regents and in the permanent records of Lamar State College-Port Arthur; and,

3. The performing arts center on campus be named the Sam and Linda Monroe Performing Arts Center.

Resolution Honoring Dr. Sam Monroe, President
Lamar State College-Port Arthur

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe is a native son of Texas, born in College Station and raised in Port Arthur, graduating from Thomas Jefferson High School before receiving a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Sam Houston State University, a Master of Education degree from Lamar University, and an honorary doctor of laws (L.L.D.) from Lamar University; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe is greatly admired and respected as a leader in his community and region, having served on, and often lead, no fewer than three dozen civic and charitable boards, including the Port Arthur Higher Education Foundation (president); the Port Arthur Finance Corporation (president); Port Arthur American Red Cross; Greater Port Arthur Bi-Centennial Commission (vice chairman); Chamber of Commerce (chairman); Jefferson County Historical Commission; Rotary Club (president); Medical Center of Southeast Texas; United Methodists Temple; and Port Arthur Schools Citizens Advisory Committee; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe is known and respected statewide by governmental officials and in the higher education community of Texas, serving as a Sabine Pilots Commissioner (appointed by Governor Dolph Briscoe); the Lamar University Board of Regents (appointed by Governor Preston Smith); the Texas College and Universities Council of Presidents; and the Texas Higher Education Assistance Fund (HEAF) Advisory Committee; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe’s professional, civic, and charitable activities have earned him numerous prestigious awards, including the Southeast Texas Arts Council Humanities Volunteer of the Year “for leadership in establishing the Museum of the Gulf Coast;” the Silver Good Citizen Medal from the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution; the Medal of Honor from the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution; the Distinguished Service Award from the Texas Historical Commission; NCCAP awards for education and for community revitalization; and Texas gubernatorial and Senate recognition, respectively, for his service as president and for major contributions toward community improvement and volunteerism; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe, the longest-serving college president in Texas, has been a vital and essential part of the life and culture of Lamar State College-Port Arthur (formerly Port Arthur College) for 49 years, holding several management positions with KPAC, the college-owned radio station, before becoming executive vice president of the College and, in 1974, succeeding his father, Madison Monroe, as president; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe, over the course of the last six decades, spanning nine American presidents and representing nearly 40% of the College’s existence, has carefully stewarded its development from an unaccredited, private technical college with 4 buildings on 3 acres with a campus value of $3 million and an enrollment of 151 students into a modern, fully-accredited, state-funded college with 29 buildings on 50 acres with a value of $110 million and an enrollment of over 3,000 students; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe, with vision and political acumen, lead the transformation of Lamar State College-Port Arthur into the Texas public higher education system in 1974 and again was instrumental in making successful its transition into the Texas State University System in 1995; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Sam Monroe, who possesses exceptional professional abilities and personal qualities, including a keen intellect, rare communication skills, an engaging and approachable personality, a dignified demeanor and temperament that reassures and encourages, always collegial and humorous, cordial and caring;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Regents of the Texas State University System enthusiastically and unanimously adopt this Resolution, thanking Dr. Sam Monroe, a courtly Southern gentleman, who has dedicated his life to education and public service, for his loyalty and exceptional contributions to Lamar State College-Port Arthur, its students, faculty and staff; to the Texas State University System; and to the State of Texas; for all are the better for his having passed this way.

Adopted by the Board of Regents of the Texas State University System this twenty-third day of May, 2014 on the campus of his Alma Mater, Sam Houston State University.

VII. ADJOURNMENT

Upon motion of Chairman Williams the meeting was adjourned at 3:10 p.m. CST.
