Gilberto Cárdenas
Julián Samora Chair in Latino Studies and Professor of Sociology • University of Notre Dame

Assistant provost and director of Notre Dame’s Institute for Latino Studies, Cárdenas has worked in the area of immigration for thirty years and has gained international recognition as a scholar in Mexican immigration. Three times named by Hispanic Business Magazine as one of the 100 most influential Latinos in the United States, Cárdenas has authored or edited numerous books, articles, monographs, and reports on international migration, economy and society, and race and ethnic relations.

Sin Fronteras: Artistic Translations of the Complexities of Mexican Migration

Thursday, March 25, 2010
5:30 PM - Centennial G01

GILBERTO CÁRDENAS
Julián Samora Chair in Latino Studies and Professor of Sociology • University of Notre Dame