Referendum
Voting on LBJS expansion Feb. 22–26

A voting referendum on whether or not to raise LBJS fees to fund an expansion to the LBJS Student Center will take place on Feb. 22–26, 2016. Don't forget to cast your vote!

Changes to be implemented:
- $36 fee increase phased in over 2 years starting Fall 2017
- New ballroom and 4–5 large meeting rooms
- New main lobby and student programming space
- Multi-cultural lounge
- Upgrades to the food court

The LBJS Student Center was built in 1998 and remains unchanged in 2016, standing for 18 years through a growth of 17,000 students. LBJS hosts the busiest food service facility on campus and turns away 20+ student requests per month for the ballroom and meetingrooms. Vote yes for the LBJS expansion!

The Red Mango frozen yogurt and smoothie company opened its doors this month on the second floor of the LBJS Student Center. The restaurant offers a wide assortment of different treats, ranging from smoothies, to frozen yogurt, to juices and parfaits. Look for it just outside the Lair on the second floor during its operational hours: 10:30 a.m.–8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 10:30 a.m.–2 p.m. on Fridays.

Red Mango's grand opening is on March 1, 2016—stop by for the unveiling to enjoy a refreshing treat!
