

King of Kombat

Description of the company

The 7th of September 2007 the 1st King of Kombat bout was held at the Austin Crocket Center. This Mix Martial Arts match attracts competitors from all over the world. World Class Cage Fighting will hold a total of 4 MMA fights each year. Each event will feature 10-13 mix martial art bouts with MMA fighters from all over the world. The events also offer an Austin flare hosted by our local personality Toddy B and to provide an ultimate experience a DJ will be playing between matches. WCCF King of Kombat is promoted by Quality Entertainment Productions.

Detailed description of internship duties

Interns will be dealing with all marketing facets of operations, including developing new markets that require clients that would increase attendance at our shows. They will be establishing relationships with gyms in Austin and surrounding counties. Interns would be implementing our corporate marketing strategy into the market in which the end result would be a larger market share.
