

Financial Aid Counseling form

Selection as a Noyce Scholar in the RADIANS program will result in the administration of a $10,000 scholarship to your university account, up to the cost of attendance. This scholarship will be disbursed through the Texas State University Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships. Successful applicants to the program are required to speak with a Financial Aid Counselor before accepting the award so that they understand the financial consequences of accepting the award. It is the applicant's choice whether to have this appointment before or after the scholarship offer is made.

To make an appointment with a Financial Aid Counselor, send an email to scholarships@txstate.edu.

My signature below indicates that I, the Applicant, understand the consequences of accepting a Noyce scholarship award and its interactions with the rest of my financial aid package.
