All required events are subject to change throughout the spring semester and more events may be added in order to fully train all Cat Camp Staff.
General Staff Expectations
Cat Camp is the only pride and traditions camp at Texas State and we are in need of Counselors and CREW Members. Counselors will work in pairs leading a small group of campers, teaching them the Texas State traditions and instilling Bobcat Pride! CREW Members will be responsible for planning, executing, and facilitating all activities that happen at Cat Camp. All applicants will be considered for both Counselor and CREW until after the hiring process is completed.

Expectations:
- All Staff is expected to attend and participate in the different meetings and retreats that the Cat Camp Directors have put together.
- All Staff will have positive attitudes and be willing to learn.
- All Staff will have strong pride in Texas State.
- All Staff will maintain a mentor-student relationship with campers.
- All Staff will be ready to “Put the Heart of Texas into the heart of students!”
- All Staff must abide by each and every Cat Camp bylaw as stated in the Cat Camp Constitution. (We will go over these as a staff to answer any questions. A copy will be provided for each staff member to reference.)
- All Staff is required to be CPR and First Aid certified.
- All Staff is required to be trained as an Ally.
- All Staff is required to maintain a Texas State GPA of at least 2.5.
- All Staff is required to be a member in good standing of at least one organization on campus.
- No Staff member can take classes during the Summer II session
- All Staff is expected to have ample knowledge of campus resources and involvement opportunities
