TOTAL COST:
$3,500 (Undergrad) | $3,800 (Graduate)

Cost includes:
- Tuition and fees for six hours of university credit
- $200 non-refundable application fee
- $300 non-refundable program deposit
- Residential room in the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona
- Occasional food
- Transportation cost of the group site visits within the city
- International Insurance (health and travel assistance)

ABOUT THIS PROGRAM:
July 9, 2017 - August 10, 2017

The students will learn American Government as compared to Spain and Europe. Students will be exposed to different social and political cultures that shape the politics of Spain. This comparative study will give students a better appreciation of why American politics is the way it is. Students will also learn about the contrast between Texas and local governments in Spain. Barcelona is the second largest city of Spain with a population of over 1.5 million inhabitants. Located on the western Mediterranean coast, Barcelona is a dynamic and cosmopolitan city of artists and diverse cultures. With its 3,000 years of history and culture, Barcelona is one of the most sought after tourist cities in the world. We will reside in the campus of the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona. The university is about 30 minutes by train north of Barcelona.

For more detailed information, visit:
www.studyabroad.txstate.edu

*Program pending approval & subject to change