Committee of the Whole: Report

February 6th, 2018

After listening to the concerns of the student body, we as the House of Representatives feel that Connor Clegg no longer represents the best interest of the students at Texas State University. We, The House of Representatives, demand Connor Clegg resign from his position as President of the Texas State University Student Body. In addition to the call for Connor Clegg's resignation, we encourage each individual representative to support any legislative measure which might lead to his removal from office.
