Department of Modern Languages
Texas State University

The Department of Modern Languages offers an annual scholarship, the Corinda Crews Moeller Endowed Scholarship, to the most qualified student majoring or minoring in German. The scholarship is not based on financial need and may be applied to tuition and fees at Texas State University or to a study abroad program sponsored by Texas State University. Recipients of the scholarship are not excluded from applying in following years.

The department's Scholarship Committee has established the following policies and procedures:

I. Selection Criteria

Eligibility Requirements

1. declared major or minor in German;
2. at least 30 hours earned at Texas State at the time of application, including the current semester;
3. completion of or enrollment in an upper division course in German; and
4. at least a 3.00 overall GPA on Texas State hours and at least a 3.50 GPA in German.

Other evidence may include department, university, or community activities related to German, and a demonstrated service to the German Program.

II. Application Procedures

Applicants submit

1. cover letter and a 250-300 word essay describing the role the German major has played or will play in their academic career and future endeavors. Applicants must include a statement whether they are related by blood or marriage to any member of the Texas State System Board of Regents (see list at <http://www.tsus.edu/regents/index.html>). A student who is related to a current member of the Board of Regents is prohibited from receiving scholarships unless the scholarship is awarded exclusively on academic merit or is an athletic scholarship. It is a Class B misdemeanor to file a false statement.
