Up All Night

Finals week is upon us, and while you should really be resting, LBJSC realizes that you are catching up on a semester's worth of studying each night of finals week. That is why LBJSC is staying up with you, supporting you with doughnuts, lemonade, and - oh yes - coffee. If you aren't sleeping, feel free to study at LBJSC on May 7, 10, 11, and 12.

Rigo

Abby

Hallie

While everyone is a star in their own right, let's give some special praise to these outstanding LBJSC employees. The Graduate Student Star of the Semester is Rigo Gutierrez, the Student Employee Star of the Month is Abby Stanely, and the Staff Star of the Month is Hallie Crawford. Each of these employees has been exceptional in their work and positively demonstrated this student center's mission of service.

Jack's Teebox

As I look back on the past year, I am so proud of all that we have accomplished at the LBJ Student Center. From programs to projects, your contributions have been significant. Your work has made Texas State a better place by building a stronger community and celebrating being a Bobcat! What we do together matters to our students and directly contributes to their success and well-being. I also want to congratulate our graduating student staff and our graduating GAs. I wish you all the best as you begin the next chapter in your lives. You will always be family, and we will always be here for you. So let's tee it up and enjoy the journey down the fairway of life!

Working This Summer?

Everyone knows that working at LBJSC is definitely more fun than going on some lame vacation to Europe or Hawaii, so it is very likely that you have decided to remain here to work during the summer. For those of you who have made other arrangements for your summer plans, please be sure to speak with your supervisor to fill out the necessary separation paperwork. Even if you plan on returning in the fall, you need to speak with your supervisor if you will not be working this summer.

Looking Ahead

For those who will be returning in the fall, here are just a few dates to keep in mind for the upcoming semester:

- LBJSC kickoff – August 28, 2015
- Homecoming – November 1-7, 2015
- Mid-Year Review – December 4, 2015

Hope Y'all Liked the BBQ!
