What’s better than reading stories and poetry? Writing them!

This summer, explore your imagination with the Central Texas Writing Project. You’ll meet other young writers and learn how to express yourself through creative writing in a fun workshop atmosphere.

You don’t need any writing experience. Our expert teachers will guide you as you create new material. Each day, you’ll learn skills to help you grow as an author. You’ll meet new friends, get loads of ideas for more stories and poems, and leave camp with a book featuring some of your very own writing!

Dates: June 19-23 and June 26–29

Cost: $250 for one child or $225 per child for siblings
