ABOUT THE PROGRAM:
June 6, 2017 - July 28, 2017
(Optional Paris portion: July 10 - July 17)

Students focus on oral and written French, phonetics and civilization, while more advanced participants study standard grammatical use, as well as culture as it is communicated through the French media. The program at CIREFE is introduced by a discovery and orientation period starting in the medieval city of Vannes, Brittany and ending in Rennes. Participation in the well-known art festival of the “Tombees de la nuit” and excursions to the mythic Mont Saint-Michel and the coastal fortified city of Saint-Malo, among other fieldtrips, add an invaluable cultural dimension to the language acquisition curriculum. Students who choose the additional Honors course will partake in instruction on campus before departure, followed by a one-week immersion in contemporary French culture in Paris, France.
