

Questions for potential employers

- What is unique about your company?
- What is unique about this position?
- What kind of employee is successful in your department, company, industry?
- What are the requirements for this position?
- Are there any special tests or exams I need to take to apply for this position?
- Do I need work experience to be competitive? If so, how many years of experience do I need?
- Do you have openings available currently? If not, do you have specific times a year that you post positions?
- What is a competitive salary for your industry?
- Is there a deadline to apply?
- How big is the department/company?
- What is the typical career path for someone who starts entry-level/in this position at your company? Is there room for professional growth?
- What advice would you give someone who wants to apply to your company?
- How might I improve my chances for hire?