India, the largest democracy in the world, is a colorful and vibrant country, with a great diversity of religions and cultural traditions. The Texas State Study Abroad in India offers students an amazing opportunity to learn about the history, culture, religion, and literature of India. For instance, students will learn about Hindu and Buddhist rituals by seeing the rituals performed in Hindu and Buddhist temples, and students will visit Gandhi’s residence when studying Gandhi and the Indian independence movement. The program will visit three very different locations in north India, including the modern capital of New Delhi, a small town in the Himalayas, and the ancient city of Varanasi, located on the Ganges River.
