Bid Drivers is a free to download mobile app launching within the month on Android and iPhone stores in various English-speaking countries. This innovative new app connects anyone with larger items that they need delivered or moved with people that own trucks or other vehicles who bid on jobs within their chosen range.

Co-created, co-founded and co-funded by Texas State alumni, this internship will provide an amazing entrepreneurial experience and opportunity for the intern to assist in the launch of a mobile transportation solution. This is a unique ground floor opportunity to work directly with the founders of a startup to implement creative social media and other marketing solutions.

This is a 200 hour position starting Fall semester 2017. Hours are very flexible (afternoon or early evening) and anticipated to be 20 hours a week. Some of the work can be done remotely. We may potentially be able to pay very exciting performance based bonuses based on the app's degree of financial success (even though this is technically listed as an unpaid internship).

POSITION SUMMARY:

The intern will be developing and implementing marketing strategies to grow the business with a focus on a wide range of social media solutions across a variety of platforms. Evaluation and maintenance of the various marketing platforms will be another important task. They will also be assisting with the creation of YouTube video marketing strategies.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Junior or senior level university student studying marketing or communication
- Enthusiastic, outgoing and ambitious with great social media skills
- Strong verbal and written communication skills

HOW TO APPLY:

Candidates may submit a resume via email directly to the co-founders of Bid Drivers at our support@BidDrivers.com address.
