Did you know ... the Educator Preparation Program (EPP) here at Texas State is made up of faculty, staff, and students from nearly every college in the university? All university employees who recruit, advise, teach, or simply visit with students aspiring to be preK-12 educators play a vital role in the EPP, and this workshop is for you!

The workshop will consist of 2 parts:

First, we will review the certification process from admission to certification.

Second, participants will have an opportunity to ask questions about their own individual programs and discuss solutions with OEP staff.

You will leave with a handful of resources and information for your colleagues and students!

Monday, February 12
2:30 - 4:30 p.m.
