Students found responsible for violating Residence Life policy may appeal the decision and sanctions of their judicial conference. These appeals must be completed within five class days of the initial written decision and turned in to the Department of Housing and Residential Life.

Name: _______________________________   ID# _______________________________

Phone Number _______________________________   Email _______________________________

Hall/Room# _______________________________   Case# _______________________________

Appeals may be based on only four reasons, which are listed below.

1. New Evidence
2. Unsupported Conclusion
3. Disproportionate Sanction
4. Procedural Error

Please check the type of Judicial Conference you are appealing.
(If case was heard by an RD please include their name)

___Residence Director (Name: _______________________________)

___Peer Review Board

Please answer all of the following justification questions to the best of your ability. (You may use the back if necessary).

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reason</th>
<th>Justification Question</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| New Evidence           | Was additional information discovered that would alter the decision of the judicial conference?
                        | ___Yes ___No
                        | If yes, please explain what additional information was discovered and how it would affect the decision.                                                |
| Unsupported Conclusion | Was the evidence substantial enough to support the decision of the judicial conference?
                        | ___Yes ___No
                        | If no, please explain the reason(s) why the evidence did not support the decision.                                                             |
| Disproportionate Sanction| Was the sanction appropriate for the policy violation(s) for which you were found responsible?
                          | ___Yes ___No
                          | If no, please explain the reason(s) why the sanction was not appropriate for the policy violation.                                              |
| Procedural Error       | Was the judicial conference fair based upon the type of alleged policy violation(s) and evidence?
                        | ___Yes ___No
                        | If no, please explain the reason(s) why the judicial conference was not fair.                                                                 |