SAP Chart of Accounts

The SAP Chart of Accounts training offers a general overview of the SAP financial account structure and an introduction to basic accounting terminology.

We will provide explanations of the different fund groups, cost center hierarchy, general ledger accounts and other required data elements. The process for establishing new accounts will be reviewed and specific questions from the audience are encouraged.

The target audience is departmental administrative assistants, budget specialists and other personnel who need and use SAP financial accounts.

To register, visit: ibis.sap.txstate.edu