GNST 3150: Career & Major Exploration

Still unsure or exploring what major to declare?

This 1-hour class in Fall 2015 will help you research potential careers and connect them to majors at Texas State.

*Know the difference

Withdrawing: removing all classes from your schedule for the semester and going to ZERO hours.

Dropping a course: removing one or more classes from schedule while having at least one class left. [The deadline to drop a class has passed. It was March 26th]
Major of the Month
Recreational Administration

The Bachelor of Science in Recreational Administration combines classroom learning and on-the-job training. Students study areas such as recreation programming, leadership, marketing, evaluation, leisure education, administration, and therapeutic recreation. Graduates are prepared to take a national examination to obtain the Certified Park and Recreation Professional certification and/or the National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification. The program is nationally accredited. The two options within the program are recreation administration and therapeutic recreation.

[For this and more information about the Recreation Administration program, please review the Department Website: http://www.hhp.txstate.edu/Divisions/Recreation-Administration.html]
