ATI TEAS Exam for Prospective Nursing Students

The ATI TEAS exam for prospective nursing students is administered by appointment only in the Testing Center at Texas State University Round Rock Campus (RRC). All prospective nursing students, regardless of the college or university they plan to attend, are welcome to test in the Center. Please plan to take ATI TEAS exam early in the admissions process, to allow scores to be available prior to the application deadline.

The Exam

The ATI TEAS is a 209-minute exam (about 3½ hours) to assess reading, mathematics, science and language usage skills.

Because seating is limited, students are urged to make their ATI TEAS testing appointment with the Testing Center at Texas State Round Rock Campus at least a week in advance. Testing appointments may be requested by calling the Testing Center at 512-716-4020, or by emailing rrc-testing@txstate.edu. The test is administered at 2 p.m. Monday through Thursday

A confirmation with instructions, directions to the campus, and parking information will be provided when an appointment is made.

Test cancellations must be made at least 48 hours prior to the exam, or the student will be considered a "no show." Two "no shows" and the student will forfeit ATI TEAS testing privileges in the Center.

ID Requirement

When checking in for the ATI TEAS exam, students must present a valid, current Texas driver's license or state ID, or a U.S. passport, military ID, permanent resident card.

Fees

Two fees are collected for the ATI TEAS:

- $60 proctoring fee, paid on test day to Texas State University by credit or debit card, or check only.
- $55 test fee, paid to ATI Nursing Education (ATI) with a MasterCard, Visa, American Express or Discover. Students may set up their ATI account and pay this fee to ATI online in the Testing Center on test day.
- ATI will charge an additional fee to release test scores to more than one institution.
