MEDIEVAL AND RENAISSANCE STUDIES MINOR
Texas State University - San Marcos

This 24-hour minor provides a transhistorical, interdisciplinary, and multicultural perspective on European cultures from the fall of Rome to the late 17th century. Two core courses provide the foundation for further in-depth study of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance in specific fields such as literature, history, art, dance, mathematics, music, philosophy, political science, technology and theatre arts.

Required core courses (6 hours):

- ENG 2310 Survey of English Literature from Beowulf through the Age of Classicism OR ENG 2330 A Survey of World Literature before 1600
- HIST 2310 Western Civilization to 1715 OR HIST 2311 History of World Civilization to the 17th Century

After choosing two of the required core courses, one in English and one in History, you will choose the remaining 18 hours (6 courses) from the following courses.*  No more than three courses (including core courses) in a single department may count toward this minor.

- Six courses from:

  ART HISTORY: 2301, 2302, 4306, 4322
  DANCE: 4368
  ENGLISH: 3319, 3350, 3351, 3352, 3353, 3354, 3356, 3392, 4351, 4355, 4358
  HISTORY: 3312, 3315, 4307, 4317, 4320
  HONORS: Selected courses*
  MATHEMATICS: 4311 (prerequisites Math 3315 and Math 2331 or 2472)
  SPANISH 3301
  PHILOSOPHY: 2311
  POLITICAL SCIENCE: 3332, 3333, 4313
  TECHNOLOGY: 3322
  THEATRE ARTS: 3320, 3346

If you would like more information, please contact Dr. Susan Morrison in Flowers Hall M12 or call 245-7669 or 245-2163; E-mail address is morrison@txstate.edu.

*Several courses throughout the university that include the study of Medieval-Renaissance material can be approved on a case-by-case basis.

REV. 1/7/13