Program pending approval & subject to change

TOTAL COST:
$4,450 (Undergrad) | $4,750 (Graduate)

Cost includes:
- Athens & Zakynthos Island, Greece
- Tuition and fees for six hours of university credit
- $200 non-refundable application fee
- Some meals
- Scheduled visits and excursions
- Bus tours and all transportation while in Greece
- International insurance (health and travel assistance)

ABOUT THIS PROGRAM:
May 23, 2017 - June 20, 2017

During this program, you will learn about the ancient and modern Greek society to gain a historical and cross-cultural perspective on many psycho-social issues of our times such as international and ethnic conflicts, immigration, impact of economic changes on traditional communities and mental health.

While living in Athens and on the Zakynthos island, you’ll have opportunity to enjoy many cultural and social activities such as visits to the world famous archaeological sites, walks through old cities and markets, and meals with traditional music in local taverns.

APPLICATION DEADLINE
FEBRUARY 17, 2017

For more detailed information, visit:
www.studyabroad.txstate.edu

*Program pending approval & subject to change

HON 4391 | PSY 3325 | PSY 3361 | PSY 5366
PSY 3316 | PSY 3331 | PSY 4395

Academic Program Director (APD)
Contact Information:
Dr. Maria Czyzewska
mc07@txstate.edu
512.245.3160

Study Abroad IEF Scholarship
Summer 2017
Application Period:
Nov. 7, 2016 – Feb. 1, 2017