Title IX Complaints of Sexual Misconduct

Title IX Coordinator
The Title IX Coordinator at Texas State University is Ameerah McBride, who also serves as the Interim Chief Diversity Officer and Interim Director of Equity and Access.

Who does Title IX affect?
Title IX protects all students, staff, faculty and visitors from discrimination on the grounds of gender, sex, gender identity or expression, and sexual orientation.

What are the examples of Title IX / Sexual Misconduct Policy violations?
Have you ever heard someone share one of the following?

“He keeps texting and e-mailing me even though I have asked him not to.”
“She screams at me in public, puts me down and calls me names.”
“I felt pressured to have sex when I didn’t want to.”

If so, you may have heard someone share an example of a Title IX violation. Texas State University’s Title IX Policy outlines prohibited sexual misconduct, including:

• sexual assault
• sexual harassment
• sexual exploitation
• sexual intimidation
• stalking
• dating violence
• family (domestic) violence

For more information, please visit txstate.edu/oea/Sexual-Misconduct--Title-IX-.html
If you feel you are or have been a victim or know a victim of sexual misconduct, contact the Title IX Coordinator. Student employees are considered responsible employees. A responsible employee who receives a report of sexual misconduct must report to the Title IX Coordinator.

Contact Information

Title IX Coordinator
Ameerah McBride
Chief Diversity Officer and Director of Equity and Access
J.C. Kellam Building, Room 164
mcbridea@txstate.edu | TitleIX@txstate.edu
Phone: 512.245.2539 | Fax: 512.245.7616

Deputy Title IX Coordinator
Alexandria Hatcher
EEO Compliance Specialist and Title IX Investigator
J.C. Kellam Building, Room 164
a_h864@txstate.edu | TitleIX@txstate.edu
Phone: 512-245-2539 | Fax: 512-245-7616

Report an instance of sexual misconduct at:
tim.txstate.edu/sexualmisconductwebline/

Title IX

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

Legal Citation: Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and its implementing regulation at 34 C.F.R. Part 106 (Title IX)

Revised 6/2018

Texas State University is a tobacco-free campus.

This information is available in alternate format upon request from the Office of Disability Services.