ABOUT THE PROGRAM:
June 3, 2017 - July 2, 2017

This program offers four Arabic language courses for beginners and intermediate levels, and two Honors courses which are taught in English. The students will be immersed in an authentic Arabic environment, living with host families. Tetouan is situated between the Rif Mountain and the beautiful Martil valley with picturesque beaches on the Mediterranean Sea. It is considered a UNESCO ‘World Heritage Site’, combining Spanish and Moorish architecture. Its vivid account of Andalusian culture and art has been kept untouched by modern influences.
