In support of the mission of the university and the value of on-campus living, all new students under the age of 20 with fewer than 30 credit hours (by September 1 for fall admission or January 1 for spring admission) are required to live in on-campus university housing. All students who graduated from high school within 12 months preceding the semester of their admission are required to live on campus.

This policy is in effect for the 2016–2017 academic year.

Living on campus is the best way to meet new people and become part of the Bobcat community. Here are some of the advantages:

- You can participate in academic and social activities.
- On-site professional staff are dedicated to helping you succeed.
- It’s a short walk to your classes, library, student center and recreation center.
- You can stay connected through in-room Internet connectivity.
- You will enjoy a variety of dining options with generous portions and healthy alternatives.
- Students who live on campus typically have higher GPAs and are more likely to graduate from the university.

Living-Learning Communities (LLCs)
(reslife.txstate.edu/llc)

Make your on-campus living experience even more memorable by joining one of our residential living-learning communities, where students take one or more classes together and participate in out-of-class experiences led by successful upper class students. Whether you have a declared major or are still trying to decide, there is a learning community for you. The Residential College LLC is open to students of all majors, while the other LLCs are major- or interest-focused.

Dining Plans
(reslife.txstate.edu/llc)

On-campus dining is provided by Chartwells, a nationally recognized food service provider that provides delicious, healthy, convenient and affordable meals. Residence hall students must purchase a meal plan. Enjoy a variety of options including “all you care to eat” dining halls with generous portions and healthy alternatives, as well as your favorite retail establishments such as Starbucks, Chick-fil-A and Einstein Bros. Bagels.
