ABOUT THIS PROGRAM:
July 9, 2017 - August 10, 2017
Depending on the courses taken, students will experience an immersive experience in British and Irish history, culture, and life. Excursions to Dublin, Liverpool, Manchester, London, York, Durham and Newcastle will allow students to travel all over the British Isles and experience the sights and sounds of the UK. Chester is rich with historical buildings and significance. Founded in 70 CE as the Roman fortress of Deva, it still contains the most complete set of Roman walls as well as the remains of the Roman Amphitheater and Norman motte and bailey castle. Set inside the Roman walls are numerous examples of Medieval and Tudor architecture that is well preserved and exists as it did 500 years ago.
