Veronica Muzquiz Edwards is the owner and CEO of InGenesis, a premier supplier of workforce management and talent acquisition services which ranks as one of the largest staffing firms in the nation and the #1 fastest growing firm in America by Staffing Industry Analysts. Before founding InGenesis in 1998, she served as an executive at a Fortune 100 telecommunications company.

Edwards has been widely recognized for her accomplishments in business, finance, and human resources. In honor of her leadership and national impact, HispanicBusiness magazine named Edwards as one of the 50 most influential Hispanic business leaders in the country, and the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce selected her as the National Hispanic Businesswoman of the Year. In addition, Edwards was selected as the Regional Ernst and Young Entrepreneur of the Year; one of the top 100 middle market CEOs in the nation by Chief Executive magazine; one of the most influential executives by Staffing Industry Analysts; and one of America’s Top 10 Female Entrepreneurs by Inc. magazine.

Edwards received her baccalaureate degree from Texas State University, which recently recognized her exemplary leadership with the Texas State Distinguished Alumna Award. She obtained a master of business administration from the University of the Incarnate Word (UIW) and was also honored with the Distinguished Alumna Award for her business acumen. She is currently pursuing a doctorate of business administration at UIW. Her research interests include global disaster preparedness and workforce planning for Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear events.

Edwards is engaged in and committed to community involvement and outreach. She has been appointed by Governor Abbott to the Texas State University Board of Regents. She also serves on the Board of Trustees of the University of the Incarnate Word. She is a member of the Board of Trustees for the Pan American Health Foundation, the World Affairs Council and the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. Edwards’ charitable activities include partnering with the American Diabetes Association in honor of her late brother, Darrell Muzquiz; supporting the Texas Burn Survivor Society; supporting the Fisher House; and fundraising activities for UIW, all with the common goals of improving lives, enhancing minds, and supporting our nation.

COMMENCEMENT AT TEXAS STATE

Welcome to Texas State University’s Summer Commencement! In order to ensure your enjoyment and safety while visiting with us, please review the following information.

Live Streaming

For your convenience, the ceremonies will be streamed live on the commencement website at www.txstate.edu/commencement.

Processional and Diploma Presentations

At the beginning of the ceremony, candidates will process in near section G and be seated in order as indicated on the map in the back of this program. During diploma presentations, candidates will cross the stage from right to left.

Commencement and Graduation

Commencement is a ceremony in which preliminary degree candidates are recognized for their academic achievements. The commencement program reflects the name and degree of each preliminary degree candidate as well as the honors designation based on the previous semester’s progress. Conferral of the official Texas State degree occurs after commencement when final grades are posted and all degree requirements have been met. The program only lists those candidates who applied by the appropriate deadline. Therefore, this program should not be considered an official list of graduates.

Guidelines for Candidates and Guests

Commencement is a significant and solemn event that celebrates years of academic achievement. In order to ensure that the ceremony is meaningful for all in attendance, please avoid all unnecessary conversation and movement. Also, please refrain from using airhorns or other noisemakers during the calling of student names.

Recessional

At the end of the ceremony, all candidates will recess to Sewell Park. Guests should remain seated until all candidates have recessed. Then, guests are welcome to meet their candidates in the park near entrances 2 and 3. In the case of inclement weather, candidates will not process outside but will leave their seats after the Platform Party has recessed.

We hope you enjoy your visit to Texas State, and congratulations to our degree candidates!
The Commencement Team was formed in 2008 and its members are commencement stakeholders from the campus community. The team meets prior to and following each commencement season to evaluate commencement processes and ensure a safe and enjoyable ceremony for guests and candidates.

The Lower Pecos Canyonlands, on the northeast edge of the Chihuahuan Desert, hold the key to the region's early history. Here, ancient cave paintings, still vivid, depict the worldview of the hunter-gatherers who lived here for millennia. Beneath the dusty land, artifacts wait to reveal their stories.

At the site of this Texas treasure, Dr. Stephen L. Black, assistant professor of anthropology at Texas State University, is training the next generation of archaeologists, far from the university's San Marcos campus. Dr. Black and his crew of undergraduate and graduate students are meticulously uncovering centuries-old information about the conditions that shaped this region.

Using the latest methodologies and technologies, these researchers are expanding upon data that has been gathered at this site since it was first excavated in 1932. With Dr. Black's mentorship, Texas State students are making discoveries not only about the past, but also about their own futures.

At Texas State, we believe students of all disciplines need to discover the world around them. Across campus and beyond, we provide students with real-world research opportunities that expand their minds and their options for exciting careers.
"The noblest search is the search for excellence."

- Lyndon B. Johnson, Thirty-Sixth President of the United States, 1963-1969
  Texas State University Class of 1930
The use of a mace during university graduation ceremonies combines symbolic communication with the principle of vested authority at the most traditional and sacred of academic celebrations. The Texas State University ceremonial mace is made of cherrywood adorned with gold-plated brass accents. Atop the mace is the university seal, displayed on gold-plated bronze medals on both sides of a cherrywood disk. Beneath the seal, a cherrywood cylinder bears four 24-karat gold-plated bronze medals, engraved with the words AUCTORITAS, GRAVITAS, HUMANITAS, and VERITAS. These words come down to us from antiquity and represent our shared academic values:

Auctoritas: The sense of one’s standing gained through experience, industriousness, and service to others
Gravitas: A sense of dignity, seriousness, and duty
Humanitas: An appreciation for refinement, civilization, and learning
Veritas: Truthfulness

The mace adds meaning and dignity to the commencement ritual. It reminds both participants and spectators that education is one of the most cherished attributes of a free and democratic society.
The gowns, caps, and hoods worn at university functions date back to the early days of the oldest universities in the Middle Ages. Monks and students wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th century halls of learning. This traditional academic dress had been gradually revised to the modern form that you see today.

All gowns have a semi-stiff yoke, long pleated front, and intricate shirring across the shoulders and back. The bachelor’s gown is worn closed, reaches about 8 to 10 inches from the floor and has long sleeves from which the arms extend at the wrist. The master’s gown may be worn open or closed and has long, pointed sleeves closed at the end, the forearm coming through a slit near the elbow, with the flowing sleeve extending down the thigh. The doctor’s gown may also be worn either open or closed but is distinguished by broad velvet panels down the front and by three velvet bars on the full bell-shaped sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or dark blue.

The black cap with maroon and gold tassel is worn by the holders of bachelor’s and master’s degrees; the black velvet tam with gold tassel is worn by holders of doctoral degrees.

The hood (not usually worn by the holders of the bachelor’s degree) is a black shell, silk-lined in the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The colors of Texas State University are shown by a maroon lining crossed with a gold chevron. The velvet border of the hood is the color signifying the field of learning in which the degree was earned and not in the department in which the major was completed. Thus, a degree conferred as master of education with a major in physical education requires the light blue of education rather than the sage of physical education. Similarly, the “doctor of philosophy” degree requires the dark blue of philosophy, not the color of the department in which the major of study was completed.

Colors signifying various fields of study that you may see today include:

- Agriculture: Maize
- Arts, Letters, Humanities: White
- Commerce, Accountancy, Business: Drab
- Criminal Justice, Law: Purple
- Economics: Copper
- Education: Light Blue
- Engineering: Orange
- Fine Arts: Brown
- Journalism: Crimson
- Music: Pink
- Nursing: Apricot
- Oratory (Speech): Silver Grey
- Philosophy: Dark Blue
- Health, Exercise Science, and Recreation: Sage
- Physical Therapy: Teal
- Public Administration, Educational Leadership, Foreign Service: Peacock
- Public Health: Salmon Pink
- Science: Gold
- Social Work: Citron
TEXAS STATE TASSEL

Tassel turning is a time-honored tradition at Texas State. Bachelor’s, Master’s, and Specialist candidates wear a maroon and gold tassel adorned with a gold charm displaying the year of graduation. Doctoral candidates wear a solid gold tassel.

After diploma presentations, candidates are instructed to move their tassels from the right side of their cap to the left, signifying the completion of their degree at Texas State.

CORDS, STOLES, AND MEDALLIONS

Cords, stoles, and medallions are worn around the neck of graduates, signifying academic honors or other achievements. Cords are made of braided nylon in a variety of colors. Stoles are panels of silk that can be embroidered with letters or symbols. Medallions are made of metal or glass-like material and hang on colored ribbon.

Some items that you may see today include:

- Maroon and gold cords, solid: Academic Honors
- Maroon and gold cords, braided: Athlete
- Red, white, and blue cords, braided: Veteran, United States of America
- Crystal medallion with maroon ribbon: Honors College

TEXAS STATE OFFICIAL RING

The Texas State Official Class Ring is a lifelong representation of Texas State pride. The symbols on the ring capture the essence of Texas State.

Explanation of symbols
The top of the official ring features a Texas “lone star” set upon an oak-and-laurel wreath. Around the crown of the ring, the Texas State University name and the founding date of 1899 are spelled out.

The left side of the ring features Texas State’s original campus building, Old Main, with tubers floating by on the steady flow of the San Marcos River. The right side features the T-star-S-logo and is symbolic of the historic roots of Texas State. The T is for Texas and the S is for State. The star represents the star in both the university seal and the state seal of Texas. The school flower, the gaillardia, is engraved inside the ring. Also known as the Indian blanket, it is the source of Texas State’s school colors, producing showy gold-and-maroon flowers along freeways and highways, and representing Texas State throughout the state and beyond.

How to wear your ring
Before graduation: wear your ring facing in, so that when you look down at your hand you can read Texas State University.

At graduation: after you receive your diploma, turn your ring around so that the words Texas State University now face out, displaying your pride to the world.
Ceremonial Brass, a student ensemble, performs for all Texas State commencement ceremonies each year. It is comprised of top brass and percussion students in the School of Music, conducted by music faculty such as Director of Bands Dr. Caroline Beatty, Associate Director of Bands Dr. Kyle Glaser, Director of the Texas State Symphony Orchestra Dr. Carolyn Watson, and School of Music Director Dr. Thomas Clark.

The commencement ceremonies feature a composition created especially for the Texas State Ceremonial Brass. Big and Bright was composed by Master of Music graduate Joshua M. Cavazos, a composer, pianist, educator, and church musician from San Antonio, Texas. He studied composition with Dr. Michael Ippolito and orchestration and arranging with Dr. Thomas Clark. Josh’s diverse musical background includes composing four CD projects of instrumental piano music, teaching music in the public school system, and performing at various venues in South Texas.

The Texas State School of Music’s wind and percussion ensembles have won national recognition and appeared at such distinguished festivals and conventions as the Texas Music Educators Association in San Antonio and the College Band Directors National Association.

The Ceremonial Brass is one ensemble of many offered by the School of Music, including choirs, wind ensembles, symphony orchestra, mariachi, salsa bands, jazz bands, opera theater, modern music, percussion, steel drums, flute choir, trombone choir, horn choir, drumline, and, of course, Bobcat Marching Band! Though many ensemble members are music majors, many also come from a variety of disciplines across the entire campus, especially for the marching band. Texas State music ensembles have performed across the U.S. and abroad, in South Africa, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Ireland, Czech Republic, Mexico, Chile, China, and The Netherlands.

The School of Music offers a busy lineup of concerts for the public, frequently including acclaimed guest artists. The Somos Músicos concert series is designed for music students to perform for each other in a supportive, informal setting. Reaching beyond the idea of a learning laboratory, “Somos Músicos” (“We are Musicians”) has become a motto for the entire school, expressing a collective passion for making music together.

Alumni can keep up with Texas State Music on Facebook (Texas State University-School of Music), Twitter (@txstmusic), or on the Web at music.txstate.edu.
Message from the Alumni Association President

Congratulations, Bobcats!

After years of hard work and commitment, you have earned your Texas State University degree and joined the Bobcat alumni family. On behalf of the Texas State Alumni Association, we congratulate you for the success of this significant milestone.

As you start the next stage of your life, remember that you aren’t alone – you are now one of more than 170,000 Bobcats worldwide. I encourage you to maintain your relationship with your alma mater and your fellow alumni. Participate with the Texas State Alumni Association to preserve your connection with Texas State. Here are some easy ways to get involved:

- Stay involved – Whether it’s participation in a Texas State Alumni Chapter or group, attending alumni events or attending an athletic event in your area, you can join the thousands of alumni who work together to preserve the excellence of Texas State University.
- Show your Texas State Pride – become a member of the Texas State Alumni Association. Your membership helps you network with other Bobcats and hear what’s happening on campus. Membership comes with great benefits and networking opportunities.
- Utilize Texas State Career Services – looking for that first job? Career Services doesn’t stop once you graduate – make an appointment to see how they can help.

It’s easy to be involved. Join our alumni online community, be part of the Bobcat Network on social media and stay informed about what’s happening at Texas State. Discover all that Texas State has to offer you not just now, but for a lifetime. You worked hard to earn your degree, and your alma mater is proud of you. Be a part of your Alumni Association, demonstrate your Bobcat Pride, and join today – www.alumni.txstate.edu.

Once a Bobcat, always a Bobcat!
