IMPORTANT NOTICE

FOR STUDENTS ENROLLING FOR INTERNSHIP CREDIT (IS 4687) IT

IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DO THE FOLLOWING:

Submit the following completed documents to the Center for International Studies:

• Internship Checklist
• Application Form
• General Release Form
• Internship Certification and Agreement Form (this must be filled out by the internship supervisor indicating that you have been accepted as an intern)

You will not be given permission to register for the class unless all application materials are turned in and complete.

If you wish to substitute the 6 hours of credit earned in the internship class (IS 4687) for a requirement in your major, please see the Academic Advisor in the Center of International Studies. With the exception of the Travel and Tourism focus, internship credit is not a requirement for the BAIS degree, but it can be substituted for certain required classes in the IS focus and/or IS core. Substitutions must have advisor approval.

Enroll in IS 4687 – you cannot receive credit for the class if you do not enroll in it! Once approval is obtained from the Academic Advisor, you will be given special permission to enroll in the class. You are responsible for enrolling in the class.

Deliver the Internship Evaluation Form to your internship supervisor the first day you report to your internship location.

Make sure that your supervisor completes the Internship Evaluation Form by the last class day for the semester in which you are enrolled. The Internship Evaluation Form should be mailed by your supervisor to the Center for International Studies, Derrick Hall 101, Texas State University, 601 University Drive, San Marcos, Texas 78666, early enough so that it will be received by the last class day of the semester in which you are enrolled. The Internship Evaluation Form can only be hand carried to the Center for International Studies if it is in a sealed company or agency envelope with the supervisor's signature over the seal.

Turn in your completed internship journal, research or policy paper, and work log by the last class day. The last class day is the last day that regular classes are held - not the last day of finals or dead day. Please refer to academic calendar for the exact date.

Part IV. Frequently Asked Questions
Why should I do an internship if it is not required for my degree? Except for those students majoring in International Studies with a focus in Travel and Tourism, the internship course is not required. We do, however, encourage all International Studies majors to do one. Not only will the internship credit be substituted for requirements in the IS core and/or focus in most cases, but completing an internship serves to offer the student a practical experience which enhances his/her future employment prospects.

What about course credit? The undergraduate internship, IS 4687, earns six semester hours of credit; IS 4387 earns three hours of credit.

Are internships paid? We make every effort to recruit agencies and businesses that offer paid internships and we do encourage our students to recognize their valuable skills and seek compensation for time spent working for their internship employer. At the present time, however, most of our interns have completed unpaid internships. As we receive information on paid internship opportunities, that information will be made available to students. If you do an internship in another country, you may be eligible for the Texas State University’s International Education Fee Scholarship. Information on this scholarship can be obtained from the Texas State Office of Study Abroad: http://www.studyabroad.txstate.edu.

What types of internships are available? The first participant in the International Studies Internship Program completed an internship with the House of Lords in London, England in 1985. Since then internship credit has been earned for a variety of work experiences. Listed below are examples of internship businesses and agencies that have hosted international studies majors in the past:

- Academic Programs Abroad, San Marcos
- Accura Systems, Inc., Plano, TX
- Apex Travel & Tours, San Marcos
- Asamblea Legislativa de Costa Rica, San Jose, Costa Rica
- Austin Convention and Visitors Bureau

- European Parliament, Brussels, Belgium
- Express Travel Center, Houston
- FBI, Austin, TX

- FBI, San Antonio, TX
- Frankfurt Economic Development Corporation, Frankfurt, Germany
- Houston World Affairs Council
- Metrocall, Inc., Plano, TX
- National Instruments, Austin
- Office of Border Affairs, Texas Department of State, Austin
- San Marcos Hispanic Chamber of Commerce
- Stratfor, Austin
- Texas Department of Agriculture, International Marketing Department, Austin
- Texas Department of Economic Development, Austin

- U.S. Department of State, U.S. Embassy, Bern, Switzerland
- U.S. Department of State, U.S. Embassy, Geneva, Switzerland
- U.S. Department of State, Washington, D.C.

Information on various internships can also be obtained from business and agency websites, Career Services, the Center for International Studies, personal and business contacts, faculty, fellow students, etc.

How are students placed with businesses/agencies? The Center for International Studies does not provide an internship placement service, however we do maintain a listing of agencies and businesses that accept interns. Other resources may be available at Career Services or on-line. It is advisable to verify with the Internship Coordinator that it is a suitable place to do an internship. You will need to supply the name and phone number of the potential supervisor as well as a list of internship duties.

When should I apply for the internship program? Applications from eligible students are normally accepted the semester before the internship is to take place. However, if possible, you may find it beneficial to research various internship options several semesters in advance. You should have completed at least 60 hours of course work before making the application. Your Texas State GPA needs to be at least a 3.0 to be eligible for an internship.

How does the sponsoring business/agency make a final selection of an intern? Although several factors enter into the selection of a student for an internship, the Academic Advisor does not make the actual hiring decision. The final selection, including the decision not to accept any applicant, is up to the sponsoring agency.

What should I expect as far as the interviewing process? Although the timing does vary, you will generally interview for an internship position between 12 and 2 weeks before the beginning of the semester. (Please keep in mind that some government agencies, such as the U.S. Department of State, do not have interviews but do have application deadlines up to 8 months prior to the start of the internship.) When you are interested in pursuing an internship at an appropriate business or agency, you should generally contact that agency's internship coordinator by phone or e-mail to garner information and to possibly set up a meeting. Some agencies are rather informal about the interview process while others are more formal and require you to send in a resume and fill out their own internship application before an interview is arranged. In any event, it is always a good idea to have a current resume in hand to offer to your intended internship supervisor.

If an internship position is offered to me, how should I respond? You are free to decline the offer of an internship position, but keep in mind that the availability of internship positions might be limited. Therefore, weigh your decision carefully. In declining an offer you should do so as promptly as possible and with a clear expression of your appreciation for the time taken by the business/agency staff to interview you. Should you decide to accept an offer, you should do so in accordance with the procedures that were suggested to you at the time the offer is extended (e.g., the business/agency may request that you give them an answer within a certain number of days). If you accept an offer, you must immediately notify the Academic Coordinator at the Center for International Studies and turn in the Internship Application Form, Internship Certification and Agreement Form, and General Release Form in order to begin the formal application process and to receive permission to enroll for the internship.

When should I register for the internship class? The International Studies Internship is offered each semester. If you have been able to set up the internship well in advance and have been given permission by the Academic Coordinator in the Center for International Studies prior to advance registration, then you may pre-register for the class if you prefer. Otherwise, you will have the opportunity to register during the registration period immediately before the semester in which you are to do the internship.

Part V. Definitions/Standards

Internship Description: Your internship supervisor must provide a detailed job description of the internship (see Internship Certification and Agreement Form). This description should include a job description with your duties and responsibilities outlined. If you are to be assigned a specific project or projects, this must also be indicated. Both you and your internship supervisor must sign the document.

Work Hours: You must work the total minimum number of hours as specified by your course requirements (150 hours are required for IS 4387; 300 hours are required for IS 4687). Please be aware, however, that the sponsoring business/agency may require more than that. Your actual work schedule is worked out between you and the agency. You will fill out the Internship Work Log daily and have your supervisor sign it at the end of each week.

Daily Internship Journal: Interns are required to turn in a typed journal at the end of the internship. It is recommended that you do not keep the journal at the workplace since it will include your private observations of the company or agency. Your journal should contain your professional impressions, not your personal feelings or fleeting personal emotions. The journal should include daily entries of 1–2 paragraphs in length that describe your work assignments and experiences in some detail for that particular workday. Feel free to elaborate on any particularly unique or noteworthy events. At the end of the internship, one final entry of 2–3 pages should be made that summarizes your entire internship experience. This section of the journal should begin with a description of your position in the agency or company and your basic duties, including a summary of your primary accomplishments. It should also provide information on some of the following while giving detailed examples:

- Your overall evaluation of your internship experience. Positive or negative?
- Your specific evaluation of your experience.
- What you believe you have gained from the internship...
• New skills that you learned, developed, or improved upon.
• A description of how your personal views and careers goals were affected by your internship.
• Specific experiences that you think will aid in your career goals.
• Your thoughts about the tasks that you were assigned. Were they meaningful?
• Experiences that you think enriched your understanding of international studies and the global community in which we live.

Organization Report: The organization report is a research paper that is a study of the company or agency for which you are doing the internship, or a policy paper that relates to the broader issues of the company/agency’s international mission. The paper should include the name and location of the company, a detailed account of what it does, an organizational chart, and a brief history, or if you select to do a policy paper, include a statement of purpose or brief literature review, a narrative and analysis of the issue stated, and a conclusion. If you are enrolled in IS 4387, the length of your paper should be 10 pages; IS 4687 requires 16 pages. It should be double-spaced and include footnotes and a bibliography with a minimum of seven sources.

Part VI. Evaluation and Grading
The sponsoring business/agency assigns your internship supervisor. You are responsible to that person when on the job. Near the conclusion of your internship (by the last class day of the semester in which you do your internship) your internship supervisor should submit the "Internship Evaluation Form" to the Center for International Studies in which he/she will evaluate your performance on the job. In most cases, the supervisor will fax the evaluation form to our office at 512-245-7857 and then put a hard copy in the mail to us. The Director of the Center for International Studies will read the evaluation and base 50% of your overall grade on it. The other 50% of your grade will be based on the daily internship journal and the organizational or policy research paper. The Director will also look at the Internship Work Log to verify that the minimum number of hours was worked. Please note that you are strongly encouraged to complete all internship requirements on time. We do understand that it is sometimes very difficult to do so especially if you are completing an internship abroad where you have limited access to computer facilities. If we do not receive your evaluation, daily internship journal, and research paper by the last class day, you will receive an “I” (incomplete). It is important, in this case, that your internship supervisor still fax your "Internship Evaluation Form" to the Center for International Studies by the end of the semester.

Class time: Class time consists of the work experience. Each student is required by the Center for International Studies to work a minimum of 300 hours at the internship site. The company or agency, however, may require additional hours. The exact days and times to be worked are to be arranged between the student and internship supervisor. All documents must be submitted to the Center for International Studies by the last class day of the semester in which you do your internship.

Course Objectives
The objective of this course is to offer students a practical experience in their chosen career, develop skills and techniques in a specific profession, obtain oral and written communication skills, to enhance interpersonal communication skills, and create opportunities to develop creativity, imagination, and career advancement.

Student Expectations
Students are expected to arrange a work schedule with the internship supervisor to include a minimum of 300 hours over the course of the semester. You will fill out the Internship Work Log on a daily basis and have your supervisor sign it at the end of each week. At the workplace, it is absolutely necessary that the student intern adhere to all workplace rules, including those related to punctuality, dress and work ethic. Students should expect reasonable and challenging assignments. They should also expect to be judged on their performance, attitude, discretion, and sense of volunteerism. It is also important for students to realize that they are representing Texas State University, the Center for International Studies, and themselves. Possible career opportunities hang in the balance!

Grading
Grades in the course will be based on the Internship Evaluation Form that is submitted by your internship supervisor and the Internship Work Log, Journal, and Organizational Research or Policy Paper as follows:

50% Internship Evaluation and Internship Work Log
50% Internship Journal and Organizational Research or Policy Paper

Daily Internship Journal Guidelines
Interns are required to turn in a typed journal at the end of the internship. It is recommended that you do not keep the journal at the workplace since it will include your private impressions and observations of the company or agency. Your journal entries should contain your professional observations, but not your personal feelings or fleeting personal emotions. The journal should include daily entries of 1–2 paragraphs in length that describe your work assignments and experiences in some detail for that particular workday. Feel free to elaborate on any particularly unique or noteworthy events. At the end of the internship, one final entry of 2–3 pages should be made that summarizes your entire internship experience. This section of the journal should begin with a description of your position in the agency or company and your basic duties, including a summary of your primary accomplishments. It should also provide information on some of the following while giving detailed examples:

- Your overall evaluation of your internship experience. Positive or negative?
- Your specific evaluation of your experience.
- What you believe you have gained from the internship
- New skills that you learned, developed, or improved upon.
- A description of how your personal views and careers goals were affected by your internship.
- Specific experiences that you think will aid in your career goals.
- Your thoughts about the tasks that you were assigned. Were they meaningful?
- Experiences that you think enriched your understanding of international studies and the global community in which we live.

Organizational or Policy Research Paper Guidelines
The organization report is a research or policy paper of approximately 16 pages that is a study of the company or agency for which you are doing the internship. The paper should include the name and location of the company, a detailed account of what it does, an organizational chart, and a brief history. Or, if you select a policy paper, it should include a statement of purpose, a brief literature review, a narrative and analysis of the issue stated, and a conclusion. Your paper should be double-spaced and include footnotes and a bibliography with a minimum of seven different sources.

I have requested and voluntarily choose to participate in the Texas State University travel to the destination above ("Travel") during the dates specified. In consideration for Texas State University ("the University") funding and/or facilitating the Travel, I (for myself, my heirs, executors, and administrators) HEREBY RELEASE, HOLD HARMLESS, DISCHARGE, AND OTHERWISE AGREE TO INDEMNIFY the University, the Texas State University System, their regents, employees, agents, and volunteers (collectively, "the Released Parties") from and for any claims, demands, liability, lawsuits, injuries (including death), property damage, attorney’s fees, expenses, costs, causes of action, judgments, or awards of any kind or character ("Loss") that may accrue, arise, or otherwise exist because of my travel and participation in the Travel. I intend this release to include any Loss sustained by a third party through whom or on behalf of whom (or whose estate) I may assert a claim, lawsuit, or cause of action.

I understand and agree that this RELEASE, HOLD HARMLESS, AND INDEMNITY AGREEMENT EXPRESSLY RELEASES, HOLDS HARMLESS, CONTRACTUALLY BINDS ME TO INDEMNIFY (i.e., reimburse the Released Parties for any Loss they may sustain, resulting from a claim by a third party) and OTHERWISE EXONERATES THE RELEASED PARTIES FROM THE CONSEQUENCES OF THEIR OWN NEGLIGENCE, WHETHER THAT NEGLIGENCE IS THE SOLE OR CONTRIBUTING CAUSE OF MY LOSS. My participation in the Travel is voluntary. I understand that, through this Travel, I will spend time in the aforementioned destination, an area that has been or may be designated as having a Travel Warning by the U.S. State Department. I understand that my participation includes a risk of personal injury, property damage, death or other Loss as described above. I hereby acknowledge that the U.S. State Department provides travel advisories at http://travel.state.gov/content/passpports/english/alertswarnings.html. I have been advised to view alerts and warnings prior to and during my travel so that I can remain aware of any necessary safety precautions. I am electing to participate and travel at my own risk. On behalf of myself, my heirs, executors and administrators, I VOLUNTARILY ASSUME ANY AND ALL RISK OF LOSS as defined and described in the above Release, Hold Harmless and Indemnity Agreement.
