Hello, and welcome to your summer internship course! We look forward to creating history with hundreds of students intern with places in almost 30 years! We have had dates, and other tidbits that we feel could as important information or upcoming due These newsletters will contain such things blossoms into an even bigger and better Our hope is that this internship program encourage you to share with us any comments or concerns that you may have. Our monthly news with you and we sharing our monthly news with you and we

Meet Your Instructor!

Mrs. Judy Dietert

Judy Dietert received both her B.S. in Education (Business and English) and M.B.A. from Texas State University back in 1986. She has been a member of the Department of Management and Marketing at Texas State University since 1989. Mrs. Dietert started the internship program for management and marketing majors at Texas State in 1986. She has been a member of the Management and Marketing Department of Texas State University since 1989. Mrs. Dietert is a professional advisor for management and marketing students. She loves directing the internship program and helping students find their calling in the business world. She is always happy to help and provide guidance. If you have any questions or concerns, please don’t hesitate to reach out. You can contact her via email at mgt_mktinterns@txstate.edu or schedule an appointment through the Office of Career Services and Internship Program.

DO'S

• Dress for Success• Cleanly shaven• Neutral colored clothing• Business casual attire• Dress shoes• Visible tattoos• Avoid distracting accessories• Focus on your communication skills, both written and verbal• Proofread, proofread, proofread!• Choose respectful, tactful, and professional language at all times• Ask for things to do. Don’t wait to be told what to do• Focus on what you’re laying for a successful career. Use these tips to help you make the most• Establish good relationships with your coworkers• Focus on your communication skills, both written and verbal• Proofread, proofread, proofread!• Choose respectful, tactful, and professional language at all times• Ask for things to do. Don’t wait to be told what to do• Focus on what you’re laying for a successful career. Use these tips to help you make the most

DON'TS

• Neutral colored clothing• Business casual attire• Dress shoes• Visible tattoos• Avoid distracting accessories• Focus on your communication skills, both written and verbal• Proofread, proofread, proofread!• Choose respectful, tactful, and professional language at all times• Ask for things to do. Don’t wait to be told what to do• Focus on what you’re laying for a successful career. Use these tips to help you make the most

Important Upcoming Dates

• 3-5 p.m. - Meet Your Instructor!
• 1-5 p.m. - Group Session
• 6:00 PM - Career Closet for professional attire to wear to your
• 4:00-4:30 p.m. - Important Information
• 12:00 p.m. - Office Hours
• 2:00 p.m. - Office Hours
• 4:00 p.m. - Office Hours

Career Closet

Everyone is encouraged to share some of your experiences, insights, and comments or concerns that you may have. The Wrase Home Group

We look forward to creating history with hundreds of students intern with places in almost 30 years! We have had dates, and other tidbits that we feel could as important information or upcoming due These newsletters will contain such things blossoms into an even bigger and better Our hope is that this internship program encourage you to share with us any comments or concerns that you may have. Our monthly news with you and we

Meet Your Instructor!

Mrs. Judy Dietert

Judy Dietert received both her B.S. in Education (Business and English) and M.B.A. from Texas State University back in 1986. She has been a member of the Department of Management and Marketing at Texas State University since 1989. Mrs. Dietert started the internship program for management and marketing majors at Texas State in 1986. She loves directing the internship program and helping students find their calling in the business world. She is always happy to help and provide guidance. If you have any questions or concerns, please don’t hesitate to reach out. You can contact her via email at mgt_mktinterns@txstate.edu or schedule an appointment through the Office of Career Services and Internship Program.

DO'S

• Dress for Success• Cleanly shaven• Neutral colored clothing• Business casual attire• Dress shoes• Visible tattoos• Avoid distracting accessories• Focus on your communication skills, both written and verbal• Proofread, proofread, proofread!• Choose respectful, tactful, and professional language at all times• Ask for things to do. Don’t wait to be told what to do• Focus on what you’re laying for a successful career. Use these tips to help you make the most

DON'TS

• Neutral colored clothing• Business casual attire• Dress shoes• Visible tattoos• Avoid distracting accessories• Focus on your communication skills, both written and verbal• Proofread, proofread, proofread!• Choose respectful, tactful, and professional language at all times• Ask for things to do. Don’t wait to be told what to do• Focus on what you’re laying for a successful career. Use these tips to help you make the most

Important Upcoming Dates

• 3-5 p.m. - Meet Your Instructor!
• 1-5 p.m. - Group Session
• 6:00 PM - Career Closet for professional attire to wear to your
• 4:00-4:30 p.m. - Important Information
• 12:00 p.m. - Office Hours
• 2:00 p.m. - Office Hours
• 4:00 p.m. - Office Hours

Career Closet

Everyone is encouraged to share some of your experiences, insights, and comments or concerns that you may have. The Wrase Home Group

We look forward to creating history with hundreds of students intern with places in almost 30 years! We have had dates, and other tidbits that we feel could as important information or upcoming due These newsletters will contain such things blossoms into an even bigger and better Our hope is that this internship program encourage you to share with us any comments or concerns that you may have. Our monthly news with you and we

Meet Your Instructor!

Mrs. Judy Dietert

Judy Dietert received both her B.S. in Education (Business and English) and M.B.A. from Texas State University back in 1986. She has been a member of the Department of Management and Marketing at Texas State University since 1989. Mrs. Dietert started the internship program for management and marketing majors at Texas State in 1986. She loves directing the internship program and helping students find their calling in the business world. She is always happy to help and provide guidance. If you have any questions or concerns, please don’t hesitate to reach out. You can contact her via email at mgt_mktinterns@txstate.edu or schedule an appointment through the Office of Career Services and Internship Program.

DO'S

• Dress for Success• Cleanly shaven• Neutral colored clothing• Business casual attire• Dress shoes• Visible tattoos• Avoid distracting accessories• Focus on your communication skills, both written and verbal• Proofread, proofread, proofread!• Choose respectful, tactful, and professional language at all times• Ask for things to do. Don’t wait to be told what to do• Focus on what you’re laying for a successful career. Use these tips to help you make the most

DON'TS

• Neutral colored clothing• Business casual attire• Dress shoes• Visible tattoos• Avoid distracting accessories• Focus on your communication skills, both written and verbal• Proofread, proofread, proofread!• Choose respectful, tactful, and professional language at all times• Ask for things to do. Don’t wait to be told what to do• Focus on what you’re laying for a successful career. Use these tips to help you make the most