

You are invited to the first collaborative forum on breast care health services in Williamson County, Texas.

Williamson County Breast Health Forum

...so no woman with breast cancer goes untreated

Wednesday, May 14, 2008

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Texas State Round Rock Higher Education Center

1555 University Boulevard

Round Rock, Texas 78665

<http://www.rrhec.txstate.edu/about/sites.html>

Conference fee of $15.00 includes lunch and program materials.

Limited Seating - Registration Required – Scholarships Available

The Williamson County Breast Health Forum is open to anyone with an interest in bridging the gap in breast health services in the Williamson County area. Join us as we collaborate, advocate and share resources to give every woman with breast cancer the care they need – and hope – for a healthy future.

Forum Highlights:

Overview, Williamson County United Way

Bride Roberts, Williamson County & Cities Health District

Ann Kitchens, Indigent Care Collaborative

Ginny Thompson, Partnership Program Manager, NCI's Cancer Information Service

Navigating the Breast & Cervical Cancer CS for Access to Care

Kenya Johnson, TX Dept. of State Health Services

Lydia Perez, Community Action, Inc.

Panel Discussion: Roadblocks and Reality – Treating the Uninsured

The Power of Collaboration

Andrea Taurins, American Cancer Society

Harriett Choffel, Grant Coordinator, Susan G. Komen For the Cure

Adeana Estoll, The AVON Foundation

The Lance Armstrong Foundation

Celine Meyer, Overview and demonstration of the Health Portal, TX Breast Health Collaborative

Hosted by the Breast Cancer Resource Centers of Texas

Made possible through the generosity and support of

The United Way of Williamson County

John S. Avery, Sr.

TX State University, Round Rock Higher Education Center

Genomic Health