In order to be admitted through Academic Bankruptcy, Texas State University requires that a student must have been out of college for five or more consecutive years immediately preceding the semester the student wishes to enroll. In addition, a student must apply for admission and submit official transcripts from all previously attended institutions, and other documents that will be used to award credit, by the appropriate admission priority date.

READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY. INITIAL EACH STATEMENT. SIGN AND DATE THE FORM AT THE BOTTOM OF THE PAGE TO BE CONSIDERED FOR ACADEMIC BANKRUPTCY.

- 1. I verify that I have been out of school five or more consecutive years immediately preceding the semester I wish to begin at Texas State.
2. I have applied for admission and submitted transcripts from all colleges previously attended or any other document that will be used to award credit (i.e., Military credit, DD-214).
3. I understand that all prior course work, documents and grades will be listed on the Texas State transcript, but the hours and grades will not be counted. This decision is irrevocable while attending Texas State.
4. I understand that Academic Bankruptcy only applies while attending Texas State. Students who transfer from Texas State to another institution after declaring Academic Bankruptcy will be subject to the admission and grading policies of the other institution.
5. I understand that I will enter Texas State on probationary status.
6. I understand that if I apply for financial aid, all course work will be included for satisfactory academic progress requirements.

Once your admission application, official transcripts and this form have been submitted, your file will be reviewed and you will be contacted by a representative from the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

I understand the information provided and the conditions listed and verify that I wish to declare Academic Bankruptcy at Texas State.
