Commencement Address

BRIAN McCOY

Saturday, May 12, 2007
9:30 a.m.

Brian McCoy was born in Galveston, Texas, and graduated from Ball High School in 1972. He graduated from Texas Tech University in 1975 with a BBA in finance.

In business, Brian has been actively involved with McCoy's from the age of 17. Lumber yard worker, truck driver, floor sales, assistant store manager, store manager, merchandise manager, Vice President, Co-President and presently CEO and Chairman of the Board are all positions he has held during the past 34 years. This privately held company operates 87 McCoy locations in 5 states, with annual sales exceeding $550 million. He is also a partner in McCoy Remme Ranches, a cow-calf operation with land holdings in far West Texas.

Brian married his high school sweetheart, Wetonnah Lane, in 1976, and they have two grown children. Their son, Reid, is a graduate student attending the Bush School at Texas A&M. Brian and Wetonnah's daughter, Meagan, earned her Master's degree from the University of Texas at Austin and is employed in the Corporate Development Department at McCoy Corporation's headquarters. In October, 2006, Reid and his wife, Katherine, had a baby girl and named her Stella – Brian and Wetonnah's first grandchild.

Brian and Wetonnah attend Solid Rock Church in San Marcos. He serves on the board of the Lumbermen's Association of Texas and Intimate Life Ministries, both headquartered in Austin. Personal interests include reading, traveling, swimming, walking and horseback riding.

COMMENCEMENT REGALIA

The gowns, caps, and hoods worn at university functions date back to the early days of the oldest universities in the Middle Ages. Monks and students wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty twelfth century halls of learning. This traditional academic dress has been gradually revised to the modern form you see today.

All gowns have a semi-stiff yoke, long pleated front, and intricate shirring across the shoulders and back. The bachelor's gown is worn closed, reaches between 8 and 10 inches from the floor, and has long sleeves from which the arms exit at the wrist. The master's gown may be worn open or closed and has long pointed sleeves closed at the end, the forearm coming through a slit near the elbow, with the flowing sleeve extending down the thigh. The doctor's gown may also be worn either open or closed but is distinguished by broad velvet panels down the front and by three velvet bars on the full bell-shaped sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the field of learning.

The black cap with maroon and gold tassel is worn by holders of a bachelor's and master's degree; the black velvet tam with gold tassel is worn by holders of a doctoral degree.

The hood (usually not worn by holders of the bachelor's degree) is a black shell, silk-lined in the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The colors of Texas State University-San Marcos are shown by a maroon lining crossed with a gold chevron. The velvet border of the hood is the color signifying the field of learning in which the degree was earned and not in the department in which the major was done. Thus, a degree conferred as master of education with a major in physical education requires the light blue of education rather than the sage of physical education. Similarly, the "doctor of philosophy" degree requires the royal of philosophy, not the color of the department in which the major of study was done.

Colors signifying various fields of learning, which you may see today, include:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Architecture	Blue Lilac	Music	Pink
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White	Nursing	Apricot

THE CEREMONIAL MACE

The use of a mace during university graduation ceremonies combines symbolic communication with the principle of vested authority at the most traditional and sacred of academic celebrations. The Texas State University mace is made of bronze and walnut and displays the university seal in maroon and gold relief. Beneath the seal is a metal base inscribed with the words-AUCTORITAS, GRAVITAS, HUMANITAS and VERITAS. These words come down to us from antiquity and represent our shared academic values:

Auctoritas: The sense of one's standing gained through experience, industriousness and service to others.

Gravitas: A sense of dignity, seriousness and duty.

Humanitas: An appreciation for refinement, civilization, and learning.

Veritas: Truthfulness.

The mace adds meaning and dignity to the commencement ritual. It reminds both participants and spectators that education is one of the most cherished attributes of a free and democratic society.
