Update for our Roadmap to Return

Roadmap to Return information.

A Few Reminders:

• Get vaccinated and wear a face mask: While Texas State cannot currently require you to be vaccinated or to wear a face mask, we strongly urge you get vaccinated and wear a mask indoors, regardless of vaccination status. These prevention measures significantly reduce the risk of infection and transmission of COVID-19. Please schedule a vaccine appointment today.

• Get tested. Regardless of vaccination status, get tested before the start of the fall semester and when selected to participate in Texas State’s random COVID-19 testing program. Testing information can be found on the Texas State’s COVID-19 Testing, Reporting, and Response Steps webpage.
Before Anything Else

- Texas State ID
- Internet ID / Email
- Parking
- CATSWEB

Teaching
Before Semester Starts

- Syllabus
  - Requirements
  - Post on HB2504 site
- Learning Management System (CANVAS)
- First Class Day: Tue Jan 18, 2022
Texas State Syllabus

• A written syllabus is required and must be distributed to students in a printed or electronic form. Faculty Handbook (*2019-2020)
  https://www.provost.txstate.edu/faculty-handbook.html (pg. 78)

• All course syllabi must include specific information. Conduct and Planning of Courses
  AA/PPS [No. 02.03.01 (4.01)], Revised 4/23/2021
  AA/PPS 4.01 and 13.01.
  http://www.provost.txstate.edu/pps/policy-and-procedure-statements/4-teaching/pps4-01.html
Some Syllabus Key Components

• Grading Policy
• Due Dates for Major Exams / Assignments
• Absentee Policy
• Disability Statement
• Honor Code
• General description of the subject matter of each lecture or discussion
• COVID-19 Specific Content
• Seating Charts
HB2504

• Public Access to Course Information
• Applicable to each undergraduate classroom course offered for credit
• Faculty use “Editor Access” to upload curriculum vita and course syllabus
• Faculty administer the “Student Perception of Instruction” (SPI) survey each semester. This year, administration will be on-line. Watch for announcements!
• Searchable by Faculty member or course
• A GREAT resource for past course syllabi for the last 3 years
Key Dates During the Spring 2022 Semester

• First Day of Class: Tuesday, January 18, 2022
• Census Day of Classes: February 2, 2022
• Automatic “W” Deadline: March 29, 2022

Before the automatic “W” deadline, a student can drop any course with a “W”; after the automatic “W” deadline, a student cannot drop a class unless they withdraw from the University.

• Withdrawal Deadline: April 21, 2022

Withdrawal means that the students have dropped all of their courses and are no longer enrolled in any classes at the University

• Last Day of Classes: May 2, 2022
Final Exams

• Final Exam Schedule available on line at Final Exam Schedules: Office of the University Registrar: Texas State University (txstate.edu)

CANVAS (Learning Management System)

• CANVAS training is available all year long!

• Additional information can be found here: https://doit.txstate.edu/services/canvas
Outcomes Assessment

• Student Learning Outcomes (SLO’s) and core objectives are assessed in all Core Curriculum Courses (check with department for details)

• Some courses outside the core may be subject to assessment for Evaluation of Program (check with department for details)

• Assessment may affect your syllabus, so check before school starts.
WHO'S AWESOME?

You're awesome.
Instructional Technologies Support (ITS-ITAC)

- Each supported classroom on campus is equipped with the essentially the same cabinet and projection system.
- The key is identical regardless of the classroom.
- Instructions on how to use the cabinet are provided in the supporting documentation.
- For problems, call 512.245.4822. Priority given to instructors in the classroom.
University Library: Instruction Support

- Library liaison program: Tap librarian expertise for specific courses in all subject disciplines. Find your liaison here: https://www.library.txstate.edu/services/scholarly-research/subject-librarians.html

- Library Instruction: Schedule a librarian to speak to your class about library resources in one of the library’s classrooms: https://www.library.txstate.edu/services/teaching-learning.html

- Class Research Sessions: Schedule library open space to meet with your class when a course requires use of library materials https://www.library.txstate.edu/services/teaching-learning/research-instruction.html

- For even MORE information about University Library resources, visit the Faculty Services Website: https://www.library.txstate.edu/services/faculty-staff.html
Emails You Should Expect

• Roster Certification/Census Day (CATSWEB). This is the 12th Class Day.
• Notifications from the Office of Disability Services
• Academic Early Alert: System targeting new freshmen during their initial transition to campus. You provide information regarding performance and attendance.
• Athletic Academic Center
• Positive Action with Students (PAWS) Alert System where any student can be referred, for any issue, at any time during the semester.

• Testing, Evaluation & Measurement Center
  https://www.txstate.edu/temc/
• Scanning service for multiple choice exams
  1-day turnaround
• Academic testing for students with disabilities
• Research Support
Office of Disability Services

• Students must be registered with ODS and have an Academic Accommodation Letter on file with ODS for any accommodations to be received. *You may receive an e-mail notice in place of an accommodation letter.

• For academic testing at TREC, students must be registered, and faculty must provide exams within specific time periods.

• Faculty members are encouraged not to “work with” students based on their statement of need as educational accommodations are a matter of federal law.

• Student accommodations are to provide equal access to students with an identified qualified disability.
Examples of Accommodations

Faculty members may be asked to provide or coordinate for a student with a disability (not a comprehensive list).

• Additional handout materials or Alternate format materials
• Access to printed materials by a visually impaired student
• Sign Language Interpreters or CART (captioning)
• Attendance issues
• Note taking assistance in the classroom for lectures
• Testing accommodations (distraction free environment, extended time)
• Assistive seating or preferential seating in the classroom
• Trained Service Animals in the classroom
Student Issues

• Have emotional problems
• Financial problems
• Attendance issues
• Cheating/Online cheating
• COVID-19

(http://facultyqualifications.its.txstate.edu/)
Faculty Evaluation

• Faculty performance evaluations – AA/PPS 04.02.11 (8.11)
• Must be conducted once annually and before reappointment
• Department specific (ask your department for your policy)
• Normally involves some combination of the following:
  ✓ self-evaluation by the faculty member
  ✓ evaluations by administrators, peers, and students (student evaluations must be done at least once each semester)
  ✓ evaluations from those outside the department/school and from other sources.
University Policies Related to Teaching

Academic Policies:

PPS = Policy and Procedure Statement
https://policies.txstate.edu/university-policies/01-01-01.html

UPPS = University Policy and Procedure Statement
https://policies.txstate.edu/university-policies/01-01-01.html
FERPA

• The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records.

• Texas State-UPPS No. 01.04.31-Access to Student Records Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 https://policies.txstate.edu/university-policies/01-04-31.html

• Begins when a student reaches the age of 18 or begins attending a postsecondary institution regardless of age, FERPA rights transfer to the student.

• Students have the right to privacy regarding their education, even if the parent is paying for that education.
Title IX and You

• Reporting – there is no option but to report sexual misconduct if a faculty member is told about it, and

• Sanctions – unlike past policies, sanctions go into effect immediately, even before an appeal.
