

FACULTY SENATE BULLETIN

December 2015

- The Faculty Senate is sponsoring an Academic Impressions webcast, titled Adjunct Faculty Recruitment, Development, and Retention, on Tuesday, December 15, 2015, noon – 1:30 pm, in JCK 880. All interested faculty and administrators are invited to participate.
- Texas State held three public forums to gather campus and community input on the Campus Carry Task Force recommendations draft #1. If you were not able to attend a forum and would like to provide your comments to the task force, please use this link to post your comments.
- The Faculty Senate has requested that VPIT Ken Pierce investigate the possibility of establishing an emergency alert system in university classrooms and offices. The Senate will keep faculty updated as we pursue this inquiry.
- November was a very busy month. The Faculty Senate reviewed 53 Faculty Development Leave applications, and endorsed recommendations from the University Research Enhancement Committee for REP proposals, the University Lecturers Committee for its inaugural supplemental cycle, and the Nontenure Line Faculty Committee for Workload Release proposals.

The Faculty Senate wishes a warm and wonderful holiday to all members of the University community!

More information about these and other topics can be found in the Faculty Senate minutes posted on the Faculty Senate website, or by contacting your Faculty Senator or Senate Liaison. The Faculty Senate encourages you to voice your concerns and comments on any faculty and shared governance topics to these representatives or directly to the senate via email: FacultySenate@txstate.edu.
