

THE TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM
BYLAWS
THE CHANCELLOR'S COUNCIL

Article I – Objective

The Chancellor's Council is organized and shall be operated for public charitable purposes and for the benefit and promotion of the Texas State University System.

Article II - Duties and Responsibilities of Chancellor's Council Members

1. Provide unique expertise, time and financial resources to assist the Chancellor in promoting the System in the performance of his official duties.
2. Interact with public officials as appropriate to make them aware of issues, needs and accomplishments within the System.
3. Promote cooperation and understanding between the System and the private sector.
4. Engage alumni, supporters of the System and the public about the System's initiatives and assist in encouraging donations, gifts, and grants.
5. Attend the Chancellor's Council special events and provide input regarding issues and opportunities to support the System.

Article III – Membership

There are three levels of membership within the Chancellor's Council – Associate, General and Executive Committee membership. Members do not need to be residents of the state of Texas nor graduates of a Texas State University System institution to become Council members.

Associate Members – Individuals 30 years or younger who contribute $250 or more annually to the Chancellor's Council are eligible for associate membership in the Council. Members gain access to the Chancellor's quarterly newsletter and are invited to a select Chancellor's Council event.

General Members – Individuals who contribute $1,000 or more annually to the Chancellor's Council are eligible for general membership in the Council. Members gain access to the Chancellor's quarterly newsletter and receive the Chancellor's Council lapel pin. Members are also invited to Chancellor's Council events with prominent decision-makers, elected officials and industry leaders.

Executive Committee Members – Individuals who contribute $5,000 or more annually to the Chancellor's Council are eligible for the executive committee membership in the Council. Membership at the executive level includes an invitation to a private event hosted by the Chancellor, as well as other Chancellor's Council events. Members also gain access to the Chancellor's quarterly newsletter and receive the Chancellor's Council lapel pin.

Article IV – Organization

The Chancellor is the Chief Executive Officer of the Chancellor's Council. He is assisted by the Chair and Vice-Chair, all of whom must be members of the Executive Committee.

Officers

Chair: The Chair is appointed by the Chancellor to serve a term of two years and is eligible for reappointment. The Chair presides at all Chancellor's Council meetings and assists the Chancellor in matters related to the Council. The Chair shall make recommendations to the Chancellor regarding programming for Council events. The Chair shall also serve as a liaison to membership and community leaders and identify candidates for Council membership.

Vice-Chair: The Vice-Chair is also appointed by the Chancellor to serve a term of two years and is eligible for reappointment. The Vice-Chair presides at the meetings of the Chancellor's Council in the absence of the Chair.

Article V – Meetings

The Chancellor's Council shall meet annually at a time and location to be agreed by the Chancellor with proper notice given in advance to Council members. The Chancellor's Council Chair and Vice-Chair will review Council activities as required, and report annually to Council members.
