- Who Are We Talking About?

What Do We Call Them?

- Shift from calling themselves “Republic of Texas” to “Sovereign Citizens”

How will we know it's them?

- True believers vs. people finding resources online

Sovereign Poverty Law Center

- “Sovereigns believe that they — not judges, juries, law enforcement or elected officials — get to decide which laws to obey and which to ignore, and they don't think they should have to pay taxes.”

- “Sovereign citizens are anti-government extremists who believe that even though they physically reside in this country, they are separate or “sovereign” from the United States. As a result, they believe they don’t have to answer to any government authority, including courts, taxing entities, motor vehicle departments, or law enforcement.
- This causes all kinds of problems—and crimes. For example, many sovereign citizens don’t pay their taxes. They hold illegal courts that issue warrants for judges and police officers. They clog up the court system with frivolous lawsuits and liens against public officials to harass them. And they use fake money orders, personal checks, and the like at government agencies, banks, and businesses.”

Way beyond not wanting to pay taxes or obey speeding
signs

- They believe the government was secretly replaced with some institution that enslaves it's citizens because of some claim about gold backed currency and the 'ownership' begins at birth when a birth certificate is created

They like to file motions ...

... A LOT

Overwhelming the court is one of their tactics

And they call the filings strange names

- A notice of copyright as to the person's name, often labeled "Common Law Copyright Notice."
- "Registered Warrant Claim for Trust Special Deposit."
- Filings responding to traffic tickets or other charges labeling those documents as "abandoned paperwork" and demanding that the court official respond with authentication of authority, a certified copy of the official's oath, a certified copy of the officials "Bar Bond", and so on.
- A response to a traffic ticket or other charge labeled as an "Affidavit of Specific Negative Averment, Opportunity to Cure, and Counterclaim."
- "Negative averment" appears on various documents, with the idea that it puts the burden on the official to respond.
- "Notice of International Commercial Claim Within The Admiralty ab initio Administrative Remedy."
- Notices of default and commercial liens and demands for payment.

- “Express Specific Reservations of Rights.”
- “Certification of Non-Response.”
- An invoice for an outrageous sum of money, in the millions or billions of dollars.
- “Non-Negotiable Declaration in the Form for Trust Affidavit in Commerce.”
- “Notice of Default for Notice and Demand for Full Disclosure.”
- “Affidavit of Citizenship and Domicile.”
- “Legal Notice: Right to Travel.”
- “Notice of Dishonor.”
- “Notice of Silver Surety Bond.”
- “Asseveration.”
- “Non-Statutory Abatement: Notice of Default, Default Judgment, and Praecipe.”

DECLARATION OF TRUTH NOTICE AND AFFIDAVIT OF IDENTITY AT LAW

Comes now, the Affiant, the living, breathing, sentient man known by the appellation Matthew Dean of the genealogy of Corbin, the undersigned hereinafter “Affiant,” does hereby solemnly certify and swear at law on the Affiant's unlimited commercial liability that:

1. The Affiant is of lawful age and competent to state the matters set forth herewith.
2. The Affiant has personal knowledge of the facts stated herein.
3. This sworn Affidavit is made as a matter of record of my own right, sui juris, in my own proper status.
4. All the facts stated herein are true, correct, complete, and certain, admissible as evidence, and if testifying the Affiant shall so state.
5. All terms used in this document are to be defined according to common usage as is found in Webster's New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, and not according to legal definitions found in law dictionaries. For example, all terms in reference to “man,” “men,” “woman,” “person,” “people” etcetera are to non-fictional flesh and blood human beings in nature and not to legal fictions.

Plain Statement of Facts

6. All matters must be expressed to be resolved. In the matters of commerce, all commerce operates in truth. Demand for truth is made of all parties for full disclosure. Everything must be stated in truth and expressed in Affidavit form. He who leaves the field of battle first (does not respond to affidavit) loses by default. Sacrifice is the measure of credibility (if there is no willingness to sacrifice, there is no liability, responsibility, authority, or measure of conviction). A Truth Affidavit, under commercial law, can only be satisfied by a rebuttal affidavit of truth point-for-point about the Truth Affidavit, by payment, by agreement, or by resolution by jury according to the rules of Common Law. An un rebutted affidavit becomes a judgment in commerce, thus commercial processes are non-judicial. Equality under the law is paramount and mandatory by law.

 - a. Where is verified evidence?

What does all this stuff mean?

Not much.

Misstated and misunderstood

At the 20 hour education seminar, we will give you specific explanation and responses to the typical language

Are they correct?

Things We've Heard ...

One person would not come
past the 'bar' in the courtroom because he didn't want to have been considered to 'enter the proceedings'

One person left 'notes'
all over the walls of their home before an eviction

Usually, the jury sees right through these folks

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

“[B]e even more on your toes than usual because unrepresented SC defendants will not be bound by the rules of evidence or the boundaries of common decency. They will say anything ...”

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

“Read up on the SC movement and know what you are up against. Also brush up on contempt of court and be ready to use it.”

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

“[P]oint out inconsistencies, as there is usually a strong financial component that accompanies the SC philosophy (tax evasion, unwillingness to pay government fees but willingness to accept the accompanying benefits [e.g. driving, business ownership, etc.]).”

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

- “Expect a crazy filing every day; expect to be personally slandered and defamed; and expect the defendant to disrespect you ... Expect the defendant to bring his own jury charge (from the Citizens Rule Book Jury Handbook) or otherwise attempt to co-opt the proceedings into an SC “common law” court.”

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

- “[Sovereign Citizens] love to get the prosecutor, the judge, and the jury all off track—confuse and distract is their motto! Breathe, stay calm, and stay focused ...”

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

- “Call for backup. Marshal extra law enforcement during court.”

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

- “Order in the court. Do not underestimate how disruptive [they] want to be to our court proceedings. Things may get out of control or hang on the edge for what seems like forever. This is normal. ... impose reasonable time limits in advance to keep the trial moving. .”

Tips from Jeff Davis County Attorney, Teresa Todd

- “Be respectful of [their] First Amendment right to have [their] own opinions, and just [process] the case itself.”
