ROOMMATE AGREEMENT

Welcome to your new home at Texas State University! In order to make this the best possible living experience for you and your roommate, the Department of Housing and Residential Life is offering you terms of agreement to take into consideration.

This Roommate Agreement is a requirement for all residents living on campus. Please discuss the topics and detail your specific answers in the lines provided. Then, sign to signify that you have discussed these topics with each other.

In the event of a disagreement, refer back to the Roommate Agreement or speak to your Resident Assistant. At the beginning of the spring semester, you and your roommate must revisit this agreement and make any updates necessary. Your RA will once again meet with you to verify and sign for completion. Revisions can be made to this agreement at any point of the year.
