Hello Honors Students,

We just wanted to send a reminder that the Honors College is offering a few honors courses over the summer (info below). Please email honorsadvising@txstate.edu if you have questions on how the course(s) can count towards your degree requirements. These courses are available to register through CatsWeb. Also, please see attached for a Texas Rivers Expedition opportunity.

TH 2313 H01, Introduction to Fine Arts
Summer I
Professor: Prof. Jordan Morille
Day/Time: MTWRF 12:00P - 1:40P
Location: LAMP 502B
CRN: 52309
Description: An introductory course designed to give the student a fundamental understanding of the creation and appreciation of diverse modes of expression through the visual and performing arts. This course may not be repeated for credit by taking ART 2313, DAN 2313, or MU 2313.

HON 2304A, The Meaning of Death
Summer I
Professor: Dr. Bob Fischer
Day/Time: MTWRF 8:00A - 9:40A
Location: CMAL 116
CRN: 52645
Description: By examining the moral and existential questions raised by our own mortality, students in this course will practice critical thinking and examine the variety of human responses to and understanding of death by focusing on how ideas, values, beliefs, and other aspects of culture express and affect human experience.
*Satisfies Language, Philosophy, and Culture Component (3 hours) Code 040

HON 2306C, America in the 1960s: A History of Movements and Ideas
Summer I
Professor: Dr. Ron Haas
Day/Time: MTWRF 2:00P - 3:40P
Location: LAMP 502B
CRN: 51118
Description: This course in the history of American social and protest movements from the end of Reconstruction through Occupy focuses in particular on the movements of the 1960s - the Civil Rights Movement, the New Left, the Women’s and Homosexual Liberation Movements, and the Counterculture - and their enduring legacies in contemporary society. Course meets every weekday during the summer session.
Satisfies American History Code 060

HON 2309Q, Honors British Literature
Summer I
Professor: Prof. Amanda North
Day/Time: TR  2:00P - 6:50P
Location: ASBN 353
CRN: 52646
Description: Students will read and analyze representative authors and works from British Literature. The course examines works in historical, social, and cultural context as a record of human experience. Courses employ a variety of teaching methods.
Counts as: Communication Code 090 and 094 (Literature)

HON 3396C, Screenwriting: A Structured Approach to Writing for the Screen
Summer I
Professor: Prof. Jordan Morille
Day/Time: MTWRF 10:00A - 11:40A
Location: LAMP 502B
CRN: 51864
Description: This course develops the basic professional techniques and skills used in writing for the screen. Students analyze contemporary scripts and perform practical exercises in story and character development, study screenplay structure and format, and develop a full-length dramatic screenplay. Course meets every weekday during the summer session.
Advanced Theatre, advanced ENG Group D, or counts toward the minor in Media Studies

BIO 1320. Modern Biology I, Molecules, Cells, and Physiology
Summer II
Professor: Dr. Sunethra Dharmasiri
Day/Time: Monday/Thursday only 10:00A - 11:40A
Location: Hybrid / IGRM 3203
CRN: 52688

Best,

Honors College Staff
Lampasas 407
honors@txstate.edu
512.245.2266
Texas Rivers Expedition
July 14 - 19, 2019

Six days of adventure centered around connecting young adults with future academic, career, recreation, and service opportunities by diving into the many ways that water connects our communities and experiences.

Program highlights:

- Kayaking
- Camping
- Service projects
- Fly fishing
- Caving
- Snorkeling
- Citizen science
- Hiking
- Swimming
- Immersive experiences
- Inspirational guest lectures

Join the Expedition

Who: Participants age 18-22

Cost: $50 per person. Staff will provide full-time support, transportation, meals and gear.

Apply Online: http://bit.ly/TXRiversExpedition

Application Deadline: May 15, 2019

For More Information:
Justine Salsbury
512-593-2614
justine@elranchito.org