Hello Honors Students!

Editing Opportunity (message from the TXSTUR staff):
The Texas State Undergraduate Research Journal is actively searching for qualified volunteer editors to join our editorial team. We are a multidisciplinary and peer-reviewed academic journal that highlights undergraduate research. Interested editors can apply here: http://www.bit.ly/TXSTURedit. The application process includes a brief test for grammar, spelling, and punctuation, as well as a short essay to be edited for content structure and clarity. Applicants may be subject for interview by co-managing editors Rachel Freeman and Sawyer Click.

Editors are responsible for managing content production for at least one submitted undergraduate essay over the academic year. The editorial board cycles over a year but the work picks up in the spring semester. Editors are encouraged to work with research related to their fields of interest.

This is a great opportunity for students in all areas of study to gain experience in editing, academic research, and publishing, while creating cross-campus connections and supporting your fellow Bobcats! Please submit your application by January 14, 2019. Email txstur@txstate.edu with any questions.

Upcoming Event: Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Student Research Symposium on December 5th (9:00AM-noon, Centennial G02). See attached flyer for details.

Scholarship Opportunity (message from the Office of Student Diversity & Inclusion)
Applications are currently being accepted for the LGBTQIA Endowed Scholarship. Please share with anyone who you think may be interested.
